

2 WAYS NOW OPEN MAYOR WILL STOP ALL STREET BLOCKING FOR DEMOCRATS

BRYAN ALONE IN FIGHT

Commoner Takes Issue With Wilson and Causes Uproar

TREATY WILL BE AN ISSUE

Leaders Believe it Will be Biggest Question

WASHINGTON.—The Democratic party was Friday faced with the alternative of following President Wilson's leadership and making the peace treaty an issue in the November election, or following W. J. Bryan's leadership and securing quick ratification on the best compromise possible.

In the opinion of party leaders, it did not seem likely Friday that Bryan's appeal to the Jackson Day banquets here Thursday night and early Friday—he finished his second speech at 2:30 a. m.—would have the effect of splitting the party or weakening Wilson's control.

According to belief here, the treaty will go into the 1920 campaign as the paramount issue. In spite of Bryan's argument against such a course.

Wilson and Bryan are diametrically opposed on this situation. The president, in his message to the party Thursday night at the opening of the Jackson Day banquets, in the Willard and Washington Hotels here, said:

"If there is any doubt as to what the people of the country think on this vital matter (ratification), the clear and single way out is to submit it for determination at the next election."

In the face of this and in the face of a resolution adopted by the Democratic national committee, pledging the party to support the president in the treaty fight, Bryan came out unequivocally against making it a campaign issue. With regard to Article 10 to which Wilson referred to as the heart of the league of nations, Bryan in his second speech early Friday morning, said:

"I think the importance of Article 10 has been very much magnified."

Wilson's message failed to clear up the question of whether he will be a third term candidate, but Democratic leaders understand he will not be, also he may participate in the campaign, swinging his influence to the candidate on the floor of the San Francisco convention whom he deems best fitted to carry on work for the treaty, and campaigning actively for the election of a senate which will ratify the document as he wants it ratified—that is, without reservation that will alter its meaning.

Bryan in his fight for a quick compromise, apparently stands alone with the possible exception of Former Ambassador Gerard, and the other speakers at both banquets welcomed the idea of making the treaty the big issue of 1920. The reaction from the White House to Bryan's challenge to Wilson's leadership was awaited Friday with keen interest. Bryan spoke first at the Washington Hotel here, and early in the evening, making his set speech. He arrived at the Willard banquet hall after midnight and listened to several addresses. Then, abandoning his prepared speech, he took the floor and startled the crowd, tired "five hours of oratory, into great excitement by his out and out opposition to Wilson's message, which had been praised, applauded and commended all evening. After a few preliminary formalities, Bryan suddenly shouted:

"If I just wanted to please you, I would stop here and let this end as a love feast. But I've passed the age of soliciting your favor."

He declared the treaty Wilson brought back from Paris was better than any body had a right to expect," lauded the president highly, told of his own effort for unqualified ratification and then said:

"I believe that having stood by the president and having failed, we should take the best we can get."

This blunt declaration startled the crowd. In one end of the hall a confusion of shouting arose, men yelling, "Stand by the president!" and "Bryan, stand by Wilson!" Bryan nodded grimly, thrust out his jaw and waited for order to be restored, then continued:

"Where would the party be in a campaign demanding that a minority of the senate shall say what shall be done with this treaty? We can't go before the country on the proposition that a minority of the senate has a right to dictate on what terms a treaty shall be ratified."

The Democrats, he said, could not justify postponing peace 14 months longer until a new congress could take office and should not justify gambling on electing a two-thirds majority in the senate, pledged to unqualified ratification.

"Who's going to gamble with stakes so great as this?" he demanded.

He also took issue with Senator Pomeroy, a previous speaker, who advised against committing the party to a pledge of government ownership of railroads. Bryan charged the railroads were about to consolidate into the greatest monopoly in history.

At 2:30 a. m. Bryan finished while some yelled: "Go on, tell us some more."

Afterward some of the crowd gathered around him, shaking his hand, while scores flocked out, some being loud in their denunciation of the Nebraskan.

RATIFICATION NOW FAR AWAY

Wilson's Letter to Democrats Shatters Hope for Treaty

BRYAN SPLIT NO INFLUENCE

Leaders Believe President Will Get Full Support

WASHINGTON.—Hope of treaty ratification by the present senate appears to have been shattered by President Wilson's letter to the Democratic committee at its Jackson Day banquet.

The president, many Republicans and Democrats agreed after carefully reading Wilson's letter, has closed the door upon any compromise which could command the votes of 64 senators. Since he has chosen the treaty an issue in the coming campaign, there is no way that it can be avoided, they believe.

William J. Bryan's split with Wilson will have no effect on the treaty situation, so far as the senate is concerned, it was believed. Several senators pointed out that even if the Democratic members should align themselves with Bryan and accept the Lodge reservation on article 10—which is virtually what Bryan advocated in his Jackson Day speech—the resulting ratification by the senate would be ineffective because the president would reject it.

Politically, however, the Bryan-Wilson split was admitted to be the greatest importance. Bryan will fight, they said, to control the Democratic national convention and if he wins, will counsel senate Democrats to yield to the Lodge reservations and ratify the treaty right after the convention, believing the president would yield with his party's verdict against him.

But Democratic senators declared that Bryan will not succeed. Wilson they said, will have the strongest kind of support from his party.

The treaty situation as affected by the president's letter, was the subject of many senatorial conferences Friday. Formal statements were given out by Senator Lodge, for the Lodge reservationists, McNary for the mild reservationists and Hitchcock for the Democrats. Senator Underwood said he still thinks his resolution for a conciliation committee offers a way out. The president, Underwood said, is still willing to accept explanatory reservations, and he predicted that many Republicans will be found counselling Lodge to a more moderate stand rather than accept the challenge of a campaign on the treaty.

Senator Borah, speaking for the out-and-out foes of all ratification, said he was glad the president has come to the view that a national referendum should be had. That, Borah pointed out, has been his position all along.

Senator Lodge, Republican leader in the senate, declared he was willing for the treaty to go into the next presidential campaign and said the president's attitude made the compromise impossible. Lodge said:

"The president has made his position very plain. He rejects absolutely the reservations adopted by the majority of the senate. He says we must take treaty without any change which alters its meaning or interpretation, whatever they may mean, expressing its undoubted meaning when there is hardly a line of it which has not been questioned and given many meanings. This permission is valueless. He stands as he has always stood, for the treaty as it is."

"The issue is clearly drawn. The reservations, intended solely to protect the United States in its sovereignty and independence, are discarded by the president. The president places himself squarely in behalf of internationalism against Americanism."

DEATH TOLL NOW IS 4,000

Mexican Officials Still Receiving Reports of Suffering

NEW QUAKE ADDS TO LIST

Thousands of Persons Sleep in Open and Have Fever

MEXICO CITY.—(Thursday)—The combined death toll from Saturday night's earthquakes and volcanic eruptions which rent apart the state of Vera Cruz, Thursday were estimated conservatively at 4,000. Twelve towns and villages were reported completely destroyed.

Thursday's volcanic eruption, according to dispatches to the newspaper El Universal Thursday night caught the helpless people in a new situation of terror. A small range of mountains known as the Cerro De San Miguel, near Cordoba, Vera Cruz, was the scene of the latest catastrophe. One hill split in two parts, the dispatch said, throwing a great stream of lava and sulphurous gases into the air.

A stream of lava 600 feet wide was flowing from the fissure Thursday night, dispatches said, and spreading out over the plains below the mountains. Registration of earthquake shocks preceded the split, it was said. The violent volcanic upheaval came without warning, according to reports here. Farmers were working in fields at the base of the hills when the eruptions began. Many of them were killed while their herds were caught in the rivers of flaming lava. Almost simultaneously with the volcanic eruptions there was a series of earthquakes. Hills were "torn out and new ridges suddenly rose and entire villages disappeared."

Dispatches described the situation as desperate. Thousands of persons were sleeping in the open, it was said, and sanitary conditions were described as terrible. Sources of drinking water also have been contaminated adding to the hardships of the people. An outbreak of yellow fever is feared, the dispatches say.

The lava streams were reported to have wiped out the town of San Miguel, in the foothills, killing 200 persons. The town of Calchahuaco was destroyed with 500 lost.

At Abahuixtla and Tresaguas, dispatches said, churches, caves in, killing many people who had fled to them to pray for deliverance, thinking of the world coming to an end.

REALIGNMENT OF PARTIES SEEN

Lewis Believes Wilson Will Be Forced to Run Again

W. J. BRYAN IS CRITICIZED

Says Nebraskan Fighting For Pride of Opinion

WASHINGTON.—Re-alignment of parties at the next election over the peace treaty issue and the possibility that President Wilson may be forced to stand for a third term, were predictions made by James Hamilton Lewis, formerly Democratic senator from Illinois, in an interview with the United Press Friday.

Lewis also criticized William Jennings Bryan for opposing the president and declared Bryan took the stand he did because his feelings were hurt.

"All present organizations of political parties are at an end," said Lewis. "I predicted some time ago that the peace treaty would produce the election issue and that it would result in many Republicans becoming Democrats and Democrats becoming Republicans."

"The words Democrat and Republican are only names and no longer represent any distinct organization of voters."

"The treaty and the fight around it would make the political alignment for the coming election. All other questions will be secondary. The alignment will be that those who will be for the treaty will be called Democrats and those against it will be aligned as Republicans."

President Wilson will not be a third term candidate unless conditions force him to, Lewis believes. The president's letter to the Jackson Day banquet of Democrats might lead to the belief that Wilson was willing to stand, for a third term, Lewis said, but declared the president would respect the anti-third term precedent "unless conflicts and trouble with this country from some foreign source, growing out of failure to ratify the treaty would force him to be a candidate to carry on the fight."

"In such case, I believe the president would accept the candidacy," Lewis said.

Bryan, Lewis said, is sensitive, because President Wilson ignored treaties Bryan had negotiated as secretary of state.

"Mr. Bryan is fighting for the pride of his opinion," Lewis said, "and while Mr. Bryan is a Democrat, he feels that every political question should be sunk from view except those of preventing war for any reason, and securing prohibition by any method. Mr. Bryan will support any party that opposes all wars and supports prohibition, be they Democrats or Republicans."

There will be no compromise on the treaty, according to Lewis who says that it now is the clear intention of both parties to go to the country.

"The president is always fighting to carry out understandings with peace commissioners of other countries that were expressed in the peace treaty, and he knows what particular reservations are destroying the good faith of the arrangement," said Lewis. "That is the reason he fights Bryan and the anti-treatyites."

SNOW IS CLEARED AWAY EARLY

Street Gang Plows Way For Traffic Early Today

FIRST BIG FALL OF SEASON

Traffic Delayed to Some Extent On Electric Lines

"Ninety percent of the city streets were cleared of snow and in condition for passage over the entire city early Friday morning," Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt announced at ten o'clock Friday morning, after he had made a survey by telephone of the city.

C. P. Zartman, superintendent of city streets, and his crew of workers began at midnight Thursday to clear the streets for passage. Both hand shovels and a big plow, to which was hitched a horse, cleared the streets for traffic.

But few complaints were received at the mayor's office Friday of conditions of the streets in even the remotest parts of the city.

Lima awoke to the fact a wet snow covered the earth to the depth of eight or nine inches.

City street cars in all directions were delayed until the snow could be removed from the tracks and were running of schedule.

Interurban cars were from 15 to 30 minutes late, but were able to plod their way thru the blinding snow. Officials of both the Ohio Electric and the Western Ohio railways announced no wires were down and they expected to maintain almost perfect service today.

The Erie railroad announced the storm hindered them but little, east-bound trains being almost on time and westbound trains only about half an hour late.

At the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio and Lake Erie Railroads, only a slight interference with the schedule was noticed. From Delphos came the word the Northern Ohio railroad running from Delphos to Akron, was tied up, the passenger train scheduled to leave there early in the morning not having been made up at eight o'clock.

Pedestrians who expected to get to work Friday morning on time were badly mistaken. The property owners hunted up the snow shovel and proceeded to put it in use.

It was the first heavy snowfall of the season. The storm and heavy snow was general, beginning Thursday at Columbus and in the eastern and central part of the state. Toledo experienced about the same amount of snowfall as Lima.

The old-fashioned sleigh, which has become dusty and its cushion moth-eaten from non-use, was brought into service and horses, equipped with the proverbial sleigh bells, were seen on Lima streets Friday.

But while the city people may complain, the farmer is rejoicing, for it will mean hundreds of dollars to him in a protection to his wheat crop.

The kiddies are having a regular time out of it.

Sleds have been taken from their recluses and are being put into immediate use.

At the close of school Friday noon the kids were right on deck with their sleds, hooking the flyers behind wagons and whizzing over the white-covered streets in merry fashion.

Friday night promises to be a lively one, in the coasting line.

Sledding parties have been formed and from all advance information local hills will be crowded with sleds, both young and old.

The "good pakin" snow also has brought forth the ancient sally from hundreds of youths. "Have a pop, Mister," is the question popped by the boys at nearly every wearer of a "plug or felt."

The weather man says it will be colder Friday night and that there may be more snow. But he is more cheerful when he states that on Saturday it will be fair and warmer.

COUNCIL TO PASS ON BUDGET

Expected to Adopt Rupert's List of Expenditures.

City council which will meet Friday night after adjourned session Monday will consider the budget compiled by Auditor Rupert for expenditures until July 1.

The budget was compiled with the help of the finance committee of the council. It is expected that the council will pass the legislation adopting the budget for city operation for the first half of the year.

The body is expected to reinstate of the position of clerk to the service director. The post was abolished by the outgoing council to meet decreased appropriations for 1920.

This additional sum for clerk hire may be added to the budget of the auditor. The past salary carried by the position was $1,000 per year.

Bids are expected to be authorized by council that would provide for a repository for city funds. Banks of the city will bid if the legislation is passed. The present contract with the American Bank expires March 1.

$600 FINE GIVEN GAMBLER

Harry Sanders Pleads Guilty to Two Indictments in Court

PRISONERS ARE ARRAIGNED

Man Admits Abandoning Wife—Others Deny Their guilt

Harry Sanders, 326 North Main street, was indicted by the recent grand jury on two counts, it developed Friday, when Sanders was brought into court to plead to the indictments.

One indictment charged playing a game for money and the other for keeping a gambling room. Sanders pleaded guilty to both indictments. He is proprietor of a soft drink establishment.

For keeping a gambling room, Judge Klinger fined him $500 and costs and imposed a sentence of thirty days in the Toledo workhouse or until the fine and costs are paid.

For playing a game for money, he was fined $100 and costs and given a sentence of 10 days in the Toledo workhouse.

Both workhouse sentences were suspended, in case Sanders pays the fine and costs within ten days.

The grand jury investigated gambling after Mayor Burkhardt announced he would clamp down the lid on vice and gambling. The fine and sentence was one of the heaviest imposed in common pleas court in many months on a like charge.

Prisoners indicted by the recent grand jury were arraigned in common pleas court Friday and allowed to plead to the charges.

Harry Gilbert, junk dealer, arrested by Sheriff Baxter on the south side Friday morning, for abandonment of his wife, pleaded guilty. Gilbert was arrested a couple of months ago on a like charge, when indicted by the grand jury, and promised the court to take care of his wife, Mrs. Cecil Gilbert, East Europa street.

Prosecutor Cable will investigate his case before sentence is imposed.

Manico Smith, indicted for larceny, pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for January 14.

Charles Harrington, indicted for embezzlement and larceny, said he was not guilty. His trial was set for January 13 and A. M. Rodgers was appointed to defend him by the court.

Frank Lafkus, drug fiend, now serving a ninety-day sentence in the county jail, was indicted for burglary and larceny in connection with the robbery of the Thompson drug store on December 20, of a quantity of drugs. He pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for January 12 and E. E. Everett was appointed by the court to defend him.

Cases of Floyd Schulenberg, George Aldea, William A. Tompkinson, Ralph Dixon, John Pfaff, Michael Felkinger, Bert Goines, Florenz Skinner and David Owen, investigated by the grand jury, resulted in no indictments being found against them. They were discharged by the court.

Fire Menace and Delay of Workers Cause Complaints

PROTESTS FROM CITIZENS

Re-Arrangement of Street Cars Also Being Planned

Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt announced Friday that the holding of street crossings by train crews must cease after next Monday.

With the coming into office of Elmer McClain, newly-appointed service director Monday, a fight against this practice will be launched at once by the new official.

Complaints have come to Mayor Burkhardt of existing conditions in the northeastern part of the city, on the McCullough park and Bellefontaine avenue street car lines. The mayor has announced he will remedy such defects.

The danger of fire and the inability of the city fire department to reach the location of the blaze, due to interference of railroads, is one reason which has caused Mayor Burkhardt to ask McClain to begin immediately to remedy the condition.

Complaints reached Mayor Burkhardt Friday that it is no unusual thing for street cars in the northeastern part of the city to be held up for a period of 25 minutes. The report stated that Wednesday a train on the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad held up a street car from 11:44 o'clock to 12:06 o'clock. Residents of the McCullough street section are complaining it is impossible to hurry home to noon lunch and get back to their place of work on time.

Mayor Burkhardt has also promised to take up with the city superintendent of transportation of the Ohio Electric railway complaints which have come to him of persons residing in the northeastern part of the city, who are compelled to get off the six o'clock car and transfer out in the cold weather to another car, while the car which should take them up town, goes out West Wayne street.

City Faces A Critical Financial Situation

Lima may be almost officially "broke" May 1. The finances of the city in some departments at this time will be practically depleted.

This was the opinion of City Auditor D. L. Rupert following the compiling of a budget of expenditures for the first half of 1920.

The operation of the city will be maintained until May 1 despite the shortage of funds until the allotted appropriations are consumed.

This will leave three departments of the city without funds for operation.

These are safety, service and the waterworks, where estimated deficiencies to the amount of $24,215.83 have been figured out.

Under the budget the departments call singly for appropriations of $62,683.54 for the safety, $37,390.90 for service and $111,685.23 for the waterworks departments.

The deficiencies in these departments are safety $14,761.12, service $2,982.91, and waterworks $6,471.80.

Unless relief is afforded in the meantime the situation will be acute, when the departments will face a period without operating expenses.

Appropriations asked by the heads of these departments were turned down to the minimum when the request went to Rupert. Further reductions are hardly possible, department chiefs declared Friday.

The funds for the safety department will be exhausted by May 1, service department funds will last only a short time longer and water works may be able to get thru until July 1 Rupert says.

Provisions for relief are expected to be made by the state Legislature that is now in session. The hope of city officials are pinned on this fact.

Cities of the state have petitioned for relief by the clearing of the Smith one per cent law that would provide for the full use of the 10 mills for city operation expenses. Part of the proceeds under the Smith law go to the school and county. Some cities have issued deficiency bonds to cover past indebtedness. Lima is unable to do this without a vote of the electors.

Here Is How To Trap The Great Richards

To the Three Persons in Lima Who Identify Man of Mystery Will Go Valuable Prizes—All are Eligible to Try

"When I appear upon the stage, in the presentation of my beautiful act, study me carefully—note every peculiarity of gesture, the color of my eyes, the general contour of my body, watch for any distinguishing marks about my teeth, or about my hands, or feet—fix these things firmly in your mind. Then go to the Bluem store, Monday, immediately after the matinee at the Orpheum, to Ellerman's Tuesday and to the Hoover-Bond store Wednesday. And the more you have studied me the more apt you are to identify me—tho I believe I can fool everyone of you"

This is the advice of the Great Richards, one of the world's greatest persons of mystery, who is the headliner artist at the Orpheum theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and during the engagement of whom one of the most interesting and delightful contests in the history of the city is being staged in co-operation between The Lima Daily News, Bluem's, Ellerman's and Hoover-Bond's.

Who is the Great Richards? Man or woman? This is the big secret of the contest, which is open to everyone in this county. It is a secret, a question, which is being asked on every hand, by everyone—a great big interrogation point which is in the mind of the entire city. There are no confusing ifs, ands, or buts about the contest. Here are the rules.

The Great Richards makes nine public appearances in Lima—six at the Orpheum, every matinee and twice each night—in the garb of a beautiful woman, in an act direct from the B. F. Keith Circuit and which is one of the most spectacular and novel ever seen here.

The other three will be in the garb of a strapping young man, modishly attired, Monday afternoon, between 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock. The Great Richards will appear on each floor of the Bluem store, at Elizabeth and Market streets. During those hours there will be a special sale of desirable merchandise at bargain prices. The person who first identifies the Great Richards at Bluem's will receive as presents from the Bluem store of a $10 merchandise order, from The Lima Daily News, a three months' subscription to The Daily News and from the Orpheum theatre ten first-class admission tickets, good at any performance during the engagement of this person of mystery. To identify the Great Richards, the person making the identification must tap the mysterious one upon the shoulder with a copy of Monday's issue of the Lima Daily News and say "You are the Great Richards, appearing at the Orpheum the first half of this week."

The Great Richards will reply, "You are correct."

Presentation of the presents will be made upon the spot by the Great Richards.

Go to the matinee at the Orpheum Monday. Then, while every feature and gesture and detail of the Great Richards is fresh in your mind, stop in at Bluem's, two doors up Market street, immediately after the matinee. Tap every person in male attire, whom you believe is the Great Richards, upon the shoulder. Don't be afraid of tapping the wrong person. Everything will be in the spirit of fun.

But if you fail to identify the Great Richards at Bluem's go to Ellerman's, directly across the street from the Orpheum, Tuesday afternoon between 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock and maybe you will have better success. But, if you fail, again, go to the Hoover-Bond Furniture store, on Public Square, Wednesday, and Rooms of Hermitage Held No Mystery.

ADA—Poor, old John Parker, miser and recluse, left only about enough money to bury him and was far from wealthy, if recent investigations in rooms of his home have yielded up their supposed secret.

Parker was found dead in his home last Sunday afternoon, due to asphyxiation by gas.

All efforts to clear up the mystery surrounding the death of an Ada man, found hanging from a tree in the rear of the saloon kept by Parker about twenty-five years ago, were lost when the grave closed over the old miser.

But twelve people attended his funeral Wednesday. A letter to an Ada girl was found on the table after his dead body was discovered. It was believed he had only finished writing the letter when overcome by gas fumes.

Articles of little value he had collected during his life-time were found when the rooms of his home were opened. Parker had about $400 on deposit in a local bank and a safety deposit vault. His wealth may reach $1,000.

For the past twenty years he has lived without work. Isaac McElroy, justice of the peace, is in charge of the estate until an administrator can be appointed.

Parker has been married five times, three of his wives having died and two divorced him. One of the divorcees is still living.

Other one of these stores. In addition to finding attractive bargains in needed and highly desirable articles of merchandise, you'll have a dandy time, you have as good a chance as anyone else to make the identification and get the splendid presents and you are welcome whether you purchase anything, or call merely to look at whether you are man or woman or boy or girl.

This is everybody's contest and everybody is welcome.

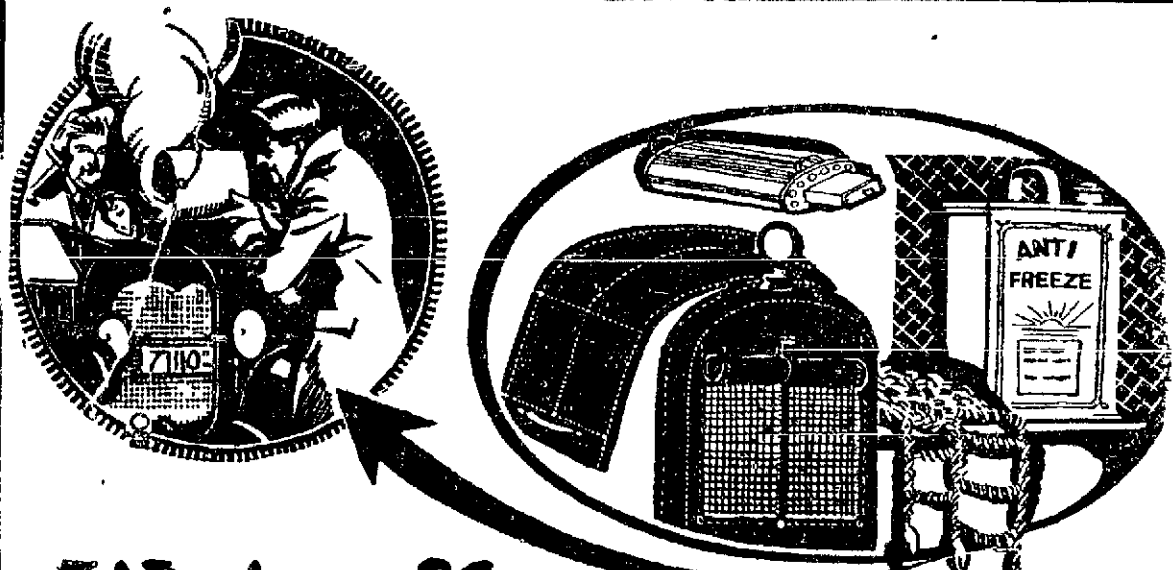

No person who previously has identified the Great Richards will be eligible in succeeding identifications. Absolute impartiality in making the presents offered and in every other detail of this contest is guaranteed by the prestige and integrity of The Lima Daily News, Bluem's, Ellerman's, Hoover-Bond and the Orpheum theatre, which institutions, in co-operation are responsible for the affair.

HUNDREDS OF WEDDINGS POSTPONED IN PARIS

PARIS — Hundreds of marriages have been postponed in Paris by the inability of young lovers to find apartments where they may set up housekeeping.

The question is easy of solution among the wealthy classes. The newlyweds whose papers are well supplied with francs are establishing themselves in hotels until the lodging crisis has passed. But persons in moderate circumstances whose business compels them to live in Paris are forced to wait until next Summer, when they hope that building operations will relieve the situation.

Winter Accessories eliminate trouble

and comfort of your motor car? Why not run it during the winter months at the maximum efficiency and minimum cost and trouble? It's just a question of providing yourself with the proper accessories. We are excellently stocked now with the best of those essentials.

SECRETARY ALEXANDER SAYS: "Business, Not U.S., Should Lend To Europe"

By JOSHUA W. ALEXANDER.
U. S. Secretary of Commerce.

IN the matter of extending our foreign commerce, the United States should not make large loans to foreign governments, unless it becomes absolutely necessary in bolstering up the credit of Europe.

This emergency can rise only in the event of private enterprise failing to extend the credit Europe needs.

It is certain Europe must have credit until she can resume normal production, for our exports this year will be $8,000,000,000 and our imports from Europe only $4,000,000,000. This means we have a balance of trade of $4,000,000,000. Since Europe has not paid us for our goods in her wares, and cannot pay us in gold, she must pay us in promises, or credit.

But it is the business of the financier, the exporter and the trader in America to extend this credit to like persons in Europe. Private enterprise will reap the rewards, the profits, and they are the ones to make the business possible.

During the war the government was expected to do every thing. We should get away from this idea. We have the financial interests—the private initiative—it is just a question of marshaling them to meet the situation.

I will not say it is entirely safe to extend credit to Europe. But financiers have to investigate and determine whether persons who seek credit are solvent even at home.

If the government guarantees foreign loans and credits, the financial interests will then let the government walk the floor, while they take it easy. No doubt there are plenty of business houses in Europe that are perfectly safe for our people to extend them credit.

It is the business of the exporter to discriminate among them and see that business is resumed.

Extending aid to starving Europe is another matter. That is not commerce, but humanity. Our hearts are touched by the privations of hungry men, women and children. We have given millions, for which we do not hope for a dollar return, and we must give more. We must not let Europe suffer, and won't.

But this is not commerce. Our commerce must be constructed along business and permanent lines.

We have the ships and must establish ocean transportation. While we are about it, we must establish our trade with South America, both on the east and west coasts. The government will have to own a merchant marine.

And in the event we sell some of the tonnage, it should be to men who will undertake to render the kind of transportation service now demanded by the American government.

FRENCH SHOP KEEPER BECOMES A "CHEMISIER"

PARIS—Here is the brand new idea of a French shopkeeper who under the name of "Cheminier Chemisier" has opened up for business near the Bourse.

For $1 a week you may have one clean shirt per week and three clean collars, each patron to make his own selection from a large stock.

For $2 a week you may have two clean shirts per week and six clean collars.

For $3 a week you may change your shirt every two days and have as many collars as you like.

Every shirt and every collar you wear is warranted to be brand new. You must return the soiled shirt and soiled collars to get new ones. The chemisier refused to say what he comes of the shirts and collars you soil.

BIG THREE STILL IN CONFERENCE

Hope to Wind Up Final Disputes of Peace Meeting

PARIS — "The big three" of the George, Clemenceau and Nitti—Friday continued their secret conversations in an effort to wind up the final disputes of the conference. The British and Italian delegations arrived Thursday night and immediately went into conference with the French officials. The meetings will be held outside the supreme council, it was understood and will be in the nature of informal gatherings in the foreign office, the war office and the British and Italian embassies. The Flume situation and the ultimate allied attitude in Russia were expected to be among the first problems taken up. The Echo De Paris announced Friday that Albert Thomas, a former cabinet member has been named chief of the labor section of the league of nations.

MRS. GOLDIE JENNINGS IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Goldie Jennings, 23, wife of Roy Jennings, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. McPherson, 920 north Jefferson street, Thursday afternoon, after an illness of nine months from tuberculosis.

The husband, a daughter, Louise, and a son, William, survive. The parents, two sisters, Mrs. Hazel Van Riter and Miss Catherine McPherson and seven brothers, William, Ralph, Francis, Ellis, Fred, Vernon, and Pearl, all of 929 north Jefferson street, are left. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

AGED NEGRO TRIES TO ENTER LION'S CAGE IN ZOO

ATLANTA, GA.—An aged negro man, whose name is not known to the police, was discovered several days ago by Mat Leonard, keeper, trying to get into the lion's cage at Grant Park zoo. The man's clothes were dripping wet and it is believed he had been in the park all night. Mr. Leonard called the police, who took the man in charge. The negro told the police he went to the park early Friday night to see the animals. It is believed he is demented.

A DEAD MAN'S RIDE ON SPEEDING MOTORCYCLE

GENEVA.—A dead man on a motorcycle rode through one of the principal streets here recently. Samuel Bellone, aged twenty-one, son of an Italian deputy, was riding on his machine when he had a sudden heart attack and died while traveling at a good speed, his hands still holding the handles, though his head had fallen forward on the bar. The machine continued running for more than a hundred yards before collapsing.

SAVING
This year we will Save every dollar,
Every half-dollar,
Every quarter,
Every nickel and penny
That we can possibly save.
We will buy nothing
That we do not have to buy.
It is not because
We want to do it.
But because we are obliged to.
We will save religiously
Until the fifteenth of March
And then we will shoot
The whole roll for
The income tax.
And if we haven't
Been able to save enough,
We will go and borrow
The balance somewhere, somehow.
Once again, brothers,
For the last time—
A Happy New Year.

CAPITAL HAS HEAVY SNOW
COLUMBUS — Snow, sleet and rain, which fell most of last night, crippled street car service here, caused trains running into Columbus to be an average of an hour late Friday and slowed up interurban service. With nearly four inches of snow and ice on the ground, snow continued falling at intervals Friday.

LIST IS REDUCED

Only 300 German War Criminals Will Be Tried

LONDON—The list of German war criminals to be tried before allied tribunals has been reduced from 1200 to 300, the Daily Mail Friday reported. It has learned. All unimportant former German leaders against whom only slight charges, will be allowed to go free, the Mail said. The names of the former crown prince and Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, still remain on the list to be tried, the newspaper declared.

FORMER LIMA TEACHER DIES AT LOUDENVILLE

Information was received here Friday morning of the death of Miss Charlotte Stewart, former teacher in the Lima High school, at her home in Loudenville, Ohio. Miss Stewart is remembered by many of the older residents of Lima, many of whom were under her instruction. She visited here about four years ago, stopping at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Moore, 742 west North street. Other friends whom she visited while here were Mrs. O. B. Selfridge, west Market street and Mrs. Josephine Smith, Lakewood avenue.

AMBULANCE REMOVALS

Jack Rosner was removed from 922 north Jefferson street to St. Rita's hospital by the City Undertaking company's ambulance.

MAN THROWS ROLL IN RIVER AND TRIES SUICIDE

PITTSBURG —Money and even life its "I" meant nothing to Paul Kudelca when he learned that his wife in the old country had eloped with a returned soldier. So Kudelca tossed $3,500 from a bridge over the Allegheny River and then prepared to follow the roll into the stream. But a watchful cop prevented the suicide. The hunt for the money is becoming a great sport by the residents near the scene.

TRAFFIC HELD UP

LORAIN — Lorain was snow-bound Friday. All street car traffic was at a standstill. No interurban cars entered or left the city Friday morning. Snow a foot deep covered the city and was blown in drifts four feet deep at many points. Thousands of working men were unable to get to work.

PEACE BUDGET EQUALS COST OF WAR DAYS

Government Plans to Spend Nearly Four and a Half Billions—Cost Multiplies by 10 In Few Years

By H. B. HUNT.

WASHINGTON.—One would never know the war was over by looking at the proposed 1920-21 national budget of $4,473,696,358, plus the possible addition of $444,000,000—making a total increase over departmental expenditures for the current year of $1,138,209,963.

As compared to wartime budgets, the total is not startling.

But let us see what these figures mean as compared with our before-the-war normal.

The total net public debt of the United States on Oct. 15, 1915, was less than this indicated increase, being $1,131,832,788.

The total appropriations for 1916—the year before we entered the war—including $313,364,667 for the postal service amounted to only $1,114,937,012, or $23,272,951 less than the prospective increase.

The increase alone is more than the total cost of administering the government for any two years prior to the Spanish-American War.

The proposed appropriation for 1920-21 is more than 10 times the appropriation for any year between 1892 and 1899.

If the government is functioning on a "peace" basis again, and if the appropriations asked for include no increases in pay, where, Mr. Taxpayer may properly ask, does all the extra cost come in?

What is he to think, for instance, when he finds a little item of $250,000, as against former expenditures of $50,000, for "technical investigations in industrial development?"

Or $200,000 as against $85,000 for "investigations of the standards of practice and methods of measurement of public utilities?"

Or $214,000 for the eradication of white pine blister rust?

These are not exceptional items. They are the ordinary rank and file that, by the hundreds and thousands, go to make up the grand total of $4,917,696,358 to be considered by Congress—the major part of which Congress will doubtless approve.

In 1915, out appropriations, exclusive of postal service amounted to $671,497,625. Allowing for generally increased costs, what are we getting in government today that accounts for the tremendous increase to approximately $5,000,000,000, which is proposed for 1921—in peace?

ALL OFF TILL FEBRUARY

PARIS.—No offers for the Dempsey-Carpenter fight can be considered until February when the option which Charles B. Cochran has on the Frenchman's services expires. This was a part of the deal offered Friday by Manager Descamps that he had accepted the terms of James W. Coffroth, American promoter, to have the European champion in the ring with Jack Dempsey at La Juana for 15 rounds.

"I wish to lay stress on the statement that I have never discussed this alleged Coffroth offer, neither have I given anyone cause to quote me as favoring the terms of that bid. The most important reason is that I have not received directly or indirectly any offer from Coffroth," Descamps said.

DOYLE GIVES LOOK INTO FUTURE

World Beyond Grave Resembles Dreamland in View.

PLACE OF JOY AND LAUGHTER

Book Refutes Theory of Grotesque Nether Regions.

LONDON — What is life like beyond the grave?

Sir Arthur Canon Doyle, in his book "The Vital Message," claims to have solved that great problem which has puzzled the minds of countless generations of men.

"What we have both in mind and character," he writes, "we carry over with us. No man is too old to learn for what he learns he keeps. There is no physical side to love and no child-birth, though there is close union between those married people who really love each other, and generally there is a deep sympathetic friendship and comradeship between the sexes. Every man or woman finds a soul-mate sooner or later."

According to Sir Arthur, arrangements are made in the next world to meet the case of couples who are ill matched on earth.

"It is a world of sympathy," he declares. "Only those who have this tie foregather. The sullen husband, the flighty wife, is no longer there to plague the innocent spouse. It is the long rest cure after the nerve strain of life, and before new experiences in the future."

"The circumstances are homely and familiar. Happy circles live in pleasant homesteads with every amenity of beauty and music. Beautiful gardens, lovely fountains, green woods, pleasant lakes, domestic pets—all of these things are fully described in the messages of the pioneer travelers who have at last got news back to those who loiter in the old dingy home. There are no poor and no rich. The craftsman may still pursue his task but he does it for the joy of the work."

There will be no dull moments in the coming world.

"It is a place of joy and laughter. There are games and sports of all sorts though none which cause pain to lower life. Food and drink in the grosser sense do not exist, but there seem to be pleasures of taste."

Children will grow older and elderly people will be youthful. A balance of youth, beauty and health will be struck.

"The child grows up to the normal, so that the mother who lost a child of two years old, and dies herself twenty years later, finds a grown-up daughter of twenty-two awaiting her coming. Age, which is produced chiefly by the mechanical presence of time in our arteries, disappears, and the individual reverts to the full normal growth and appearance of completed manhood and womanhood."

It is a land of hope and glory for the faded and enfeebled, physically and mentally.

"Let no woman mourn her lost beauty and no man his lost strength and weakening brain," states Sir Arthur. "It all awaits them once more on the other side. Nor is any deformity, blindness and other imperfections. None of them is permanent, and all will vanish in that happier life that awaits us."

In the new Paradise men will be in congenial and familiar surroundings. "Every earthly thing has its equivalent. Scoffers have guffawed over alcohol and tobacco, but if all things were reproduced it would be a flaw if these were not reproduced also. That they should be abused as they are here would, indeed, be evil tidings."

Sir Arthur points out that the revelation "abolishes the idea of a grotesque hell and of a fantastic heaven." He answers the critic who wants to know why clairvoyants have visions where the aged father is seen clad in the old-fashioned garments of another age, or the grandmother with crinolines and chignon. As these the habitations of heaven?

"Certainly not," replies Sir Arthur to the critic or skeptic. "Such visions are not spirits, but they are pictures which are built up before us or shot by spirits into our brains or those of the seer for the purpose of recognition. Hence the grey hair and hence the ancient garb."

Can Run Up the Stairway, Now Says Watchman

Boutin's Friends Are Astonished At His Remarkable Recovery—Praises Tanlac

"Well, sir, it's a fact, I'm starting this New Year feeling in better shape physically than I have in the past seven or eight years, and I want the people to know that it's all because of what Tanlac has done for me," said Adolph Boutin, night watchman for the Depenthal Truck and Storage Company, living at 312 Wade street, Toledo, Ohio, in an interview the other day.

For the past five years, especially, he continued, "I have suffered from acute stomach trouble and rheumatism, and during the past two years I have paid out all of five hundred dollars for treatment and medicines without getting more than a little passing relief. There was nothing I could eat but what would sour on my stomach, bloat me all up with gas and keep me in pain and misery for hours. Besides such things as roast, soft boiled eggs, and liquid foods brought on those awful pains and there were times when a glass of water hurt my stomach. The pains and pressure around my heart, caused by the gas from my stomach, would almost suffocate me at times. My nerves were so unstrung that I was troubled with jerking sensations and with cold effects like chills and fever. I have often gotten up from my restless sleep so weak and played-out that it took me almost an hour to get my clothes on. My hands and feet would swell with rheumatism until I could not move either my fingers or toes, my right knee also ached terribly, and I was in such a bad shape that I couldn't walk any distance without stopping to rest. In making my rounds at the storage rooms I have to go up and down stairs at intervals and many a time the pains were so intense in my stomach and around my heart that I could scarcely get my breath. I have often had to sit down on the stairway for a while before I could continue to the top."

"Well, as nothing helped me, I had become badly discouraged and almost lost hope of ever getting well. But since Tanlac came my way I am a different man. The first bottle gave me good results and I now feel like I have been given a new lease on life. I am eating just anything I want now with gas, bloating or distress of any kind after eating. I believe the pains have left my hands and feet for good because I have not noticed it now in some time. I am feeling stronger and better in every way than I have in several years and am still gaining in weight, as well as strength every day. I am able to run up and down the stairs almost like a boy and my friends who know how bad off I was a month ago are astonished at my such quick and wonderful improvement. I believe Tanlac has been a godsend to me and I am glad to make a statement that may be of benefit to others who are needing such a medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Lima at Hunter's Drug Store and the leading druggists

SILK THEFTS IN N. Y.
$3,000,000 IN TWO YEARS
NEW YORK — More than $100,000 in silk, raw and manufactured, has been stolen by truck thieves and loft burglars in this city in the last two weeks, according to the reports made by the Silk Association of America.

Approximately $3,000,000 worth of silk products have been stolen from members of the association alone in the period from January 1, 1918, to November 30, 1919. Of this vast amount, something like $1,500,000 to $1,750,000 worth has been recovered, leaving the burglars with a profit of $1,250,000.

COAL DEPOSIT NEAR SURFACE WORTH MILLIONS
POTTEVILLE, Pa. — Coal worth millions of dollars, near the surface, is being uncovered at St. Clair. As the discovery has been made by stripping off the surface, without any danger. The stripping has been a big job involving the removal of 400,000 tons of top rock and dirt in a strip of 1,600 feet long, 400 wide and reaching a maximum depth of 65 feet.

A body of coal has been disclosed worth more than the average gold mine at the present price of coal.

It Pays to Advertise

No truer adage was ever printed, as thousands of Lima women know, for through the medium of advertising in the daily papers, we are able to tell you of the many special advantages we offer, and the constant influx of new merchandise.

—By reading carefully our advertisements, you will find it possible in many instances to practice economy—as it is our aim to offer at all times the "best merchandise for the least."

—Truth is the backbone of our advertising, for we are careful to allow any over-estimates of quality or value, and no sales person is permitted to misrepresent anything.

—Truth must sell the goods, for truth begets confidence and only through keeping the confidence of the public can we gain and prosper.

THE JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

January Clearance Sales affect prices on staple merchandise used throughout the year. The savings offered and the variety of the assortments of merchandise presented make it an economy event. Men and women who have ever participated in one of this store's Annual January Sales, appreciate the many advantages to be gained by reading carefully every article advertised, and coming to this store, where many articles are specially priced which have not been advertised.

Hats Inspired By Spring

Oh, the joyous sensation of wearing one's first Spring Hat—and knowing that it is becoming—and maybe just a wee bit flattering. And just as nothing can quite compare with that thrill, after months of dark, heavy chapeaux so, we believe, no millinery mode can compare with these lovely Spring Creations. Their very newness enchants. Here one admires large, small and medium size Hats and in each case one cannot help but exclaim at the moderateness of its pricing.

FIGHT FOR SEATS IS STARTED

Socialists Charge Lusk Committee Influenced Assembly

NEW YORK—Charges that the state assembly in excluding five socialists at its opening session Wednesday was influenced by the Lusk committee which feared disclosures intended to make were made by socialist leaders here Friday.

After an all-day session Thursday the executive committee of the party decided to fight to the end in protest against the action of the lower house.

Opinion was divided here among assemblymen upon the expulsion of the socialist members.

"The time has come for a showdown," Speaker Sweet declared, in defending the action.

Socialist leaders and the five suspended assemblymen conferred again Friday and prepared a statement that will be issued Friday or Saturday. Reports were circulated that the five may not return to Albany to present their side of the controversy to the committee that will sit in the afternoon but will fight the suspension on constitutional grounds. Their views, it was said, will be placed before New York voters Sunday in a special edition of the New York Call, a socialist newspaper which will be distributed to every home in New York. A socialist protest convention is to be held here Saturday.

The suspended assemblymen issued a statement Thursday night, charging their suspension was due in part to the Lusk committee, that has investigated radicals in New York. The socialists stated they would probably have been the "sole obstacle" in the way of the Lusk committee in its application to the legislature for an extension and an additional appropriation and that their removal has cleared the way for the committee.

They presented ten questions the socialists had intended to propound to the Lusk committee in the assembly.

FROM OUR READERS

Dear Editor:

We solicit your help to remedy certain conditions in the northeastern part of the city, which are both wrong and rotten.

First, the trains hold up the street car service as much as 25 minutes. —Trains going both ways. Today we heard complaints that the D. T. & I. held the same line from 11.44 to 12.06, put the individual out by McCullough Lake that wants to get up town in the party that must hurry home in the noon lunch—it can't be done. Beaverdam would not let trains hold the street over five minutes, but the trains have their own way here. Again, as many as 15 parties complain that they only get half way up town and are compelled to get off their six o'clock car and transfer out in the cold to another car, while the car that should have taken them up town, goes out West Wayne, and leaves the people standing outside like so many McCullough leeches.

JAPS ARE FETTERED

MEXICO CITY.—(Thursday).—Mexico City Thursday night was the scene of a remarkable demonstration in honor of the officers and crew of the Japanese cruiser Takuma, which was concluding a week's stay here. After a banquet tendered by the government, great throngs paraded the streets in the vicinity of the visitors' hotel, shouting continual "Vivas" to the Japanese.

MEN AND MATTERS

The newly appointed Boy Scout Council will meet in first official session Friday afternoon and elect officers for the coming year. Officers will be elected for a period of one year.

Thru orders issued from Washington Thursday Lima men may enlist in the army for any of the seven regular army camps in the country. Orders received here by Sergeant Long state that the infantry, field artillery, signal corps, engineers and medical divisions are open.

A Christmas feed which would have been hard to beat and liberal passes, have won the hearts of Gail Morris and Ray Clements, local boys, who enlisted in the army one month ago. They are now home on a furlough and Sergeant Long of the recruiting station says that the only kick the boys have coming is that they did not enlist for a three-year period instead of a one-year term.

LODGE NOTICES

THREE HURT IN CRASH

CLEVELAND.—Three persons were injured, one probably fatally, in a crash between a yard engine and a Pennsylvania railroad train here early Friday. Railroad officials said John Knauss, 60, engineer on the yard engine, was caught under the locomotive when it toppled over from the impact. He is in a hospital unconscious. A fireman and a brakeman were also hurt.

Garford Shop Employee Discloses Big Improvement

Joseph Connors Says, "I Believe Nuxite Is the Greatest Tonic on Earth. Nothing I Ever Used Increased Strength So Quickly"

Well Known Lima Resident Makes Public Statement

Was Troubled With Sour Stomach, Felt Tired, Weak and Nervous Before Taking Nuxite

"I have used Nuxite myself, and I know from the results I got from it that it is the greatest tonic on earth," says Mr. Joseph Connors, who lives at No. 504 Atlantic street right here in Lima. Mr. Connors is well known here and is a pipe-fitter by trade being employed at the Garford shops.

"My trouble was caused by a sour stomach," continued Mr. Connors. "I felt tired and weak a great deal of the time, and couldn't rest well at night. My appetite was poor, and what I did eat didn't seem to give me any strength. Gas formed and caused me to have pains in my stomach after eating. I usually felt worse in the mornings, and nearly always had the headache when I got out of bed. My joints and muscles were sore and stiff and I often had pains across the small of my back, right over the kidneys."

PLAN REFORESTATION IN N. Y. STATE IN SPRING
COHOCTON, N. Y.—Forestry in New York State is receiving active interest and a bright future for New York State's forests is promised. Speaking here before the Cohocton Grange, Professor Russell T. Green,

"I began using Nuxite because I had tried nearly every other kind of medicine, without getting any real benefit, and I hoped that this new medicine would go after my trouble in a different way from the others. I have been taking Nuxite about ten days now, and I feel fine. My appetite is splendid. I can't get enough to eat. The soreness in my stomach, back and muscles has gone away and I don't have those tired, weak spells any more."

"I sleep good at night and haven't had a headache in over a week. Nuxite has sure proved itself to me, and I will always keep a bottle of it on hand. I never gave my recommendation to a medicine before, but I am glad to do it in this case for I know Nuxite will help anybody who feels like I did."

Nuxite to which Mr. Connors refers is being introduced in Lima at Hunter's Public Square Drug Store, under the supervision of W. R. Cooper, the special Nuxite Representative. Nuxite remedies sold by Theo. E. Siewert, druggist at St. Marys, Ohio.

SQUARE DEAL IS HARDING'S PLEA

Says Big Business Has Done Its Full Share

CLEVELAND.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Ohio, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, made a plea for a square deal for big business, in an address here Thursday night before the American Electric Railway Association convention. No element in the United States responded more completely to the demands of the nation during the war than organized big business, he said.

Harding cited the case of the DuPont Powder interests in refusing to accept an agreed commission of 7,000,000 from the government for the construction and organization of powder plants, as one of many manifestations of patriotism by big business. A "Russianized" United States," he said, was not to be feared as he felt the "Americanism and intelligence of the workers would not countenance it."

Before leaving for his home in Marion, Ohio, Friday, Harding conferred with Republican leaders of Cleveland and Cuyahoga county. He announced himself "thoroughly satisfied" with conditions here. It was held probable that Myron T. Herrick and Frank B. Willis, former governors of Ohio, will lead a solid Ohio delegation to the Republican convention in support of Harding's candidacy. Harding said Herrick had accepted his request to stand for election as one of the delegates-at-large from Ohio. He said he would make the same request of Willis and expressed confidence in the latter's acceptance. Harding said local Republican leaders picked him from the unqualified support of the Cleveland and Cuyahoga Republicans.

MORTON FOUND GUILTY
CLEVELAND.—"Big Jim" Morton charged with the robbery of a bank here of $67,000, was found guilty by a jury after ten hours' deliberation. The sealed verdict delivered during the night was opened and read at 10 o'clock Monday.

PALMISTRY THRIVES IN LONDON; MEDIUMS BUSY
LONDON.—These are painful days for palmistry and allied "trades" in London.

If you want the services of a medium you have a slush to find her. She is so busy with folks who know where she lives and who make their appointments in advance, that she never advertises.

Of all the hundreds who are playing the trade on delving into the future only twenty or thirty are really recognized mediums—recognized in the sense that their powers have been tested by some society of spiritualists who truly believe in them. These twenty or thirty do not serve the general public—receiving merely members of the societies with which they are connected, or friends duly vouchsafed for by fellow members.

ELECT MEMBERS OF HEALTH BOARD

Two Vacancies Filled in County Body at Session.

J. C. Guider, Richland township, and A. J. Gray, Perry township, were elected members of the county health board at a meeting held Thursday at the court house. Guider will serve for two years and Gray for one year.

The vacancies on the board were caused by the resignation of Beryl Crites, attorney, and E. G. Bergener, Delphos. Bergener, who was president, was forced from a seat on the board when the Griswold act changed the district, making Delphos a city and health district of its own.

Guider was not present and R. H. Rex, Bath township, another member of the board, is in the west. Dr. Miller, Spencerville, and Dr. R. E. Hughson, Bluffton, are other members of the board.

The board submitted their budget for the year of $6,000 for all health purposes.

The district advisory health council, in session during the day cut the budget down to $4,000. This is exclusive of the amount to be paid by the state, which will equal $2,000 in case the salary of the health commissioner, nurse and clerk amounts to $4,000. Otherwise, but $1,500 will be paid by the state.

The health board will meet at a later date to reorganize and select the new health commissioner. Members of the advisory council include the chairman of the board of trustees and mayors of villages.

POLICE DO LITTLE BUSINESS THESE DAYS

The proverbial blotter at the local police station is becoming dust-covered and will soon be in absolute obscurity.

Things have been so quiet at the lock-up that Sergeant Eberle's pencil would skid should it be pushed over paper at an unusually fast clip.

All in all those at police headquarters say that business at their office is about as prosperous as an ice cream store at the North Pole. Not one arrest in two days—not even a man brought in on suspicion charges. Day Police Sergeant Eberle claims this city is going great.

The Poor Professor

WE HAVE HEARD quite enough of the "poor professor" and his attempts to spread the salary of 1900, in fifty cents dollars, over the present cost of living. The professor, if he is as resourceful as we think he is, will manage somehow to get a call to some university where salaries have been elevated, or will quietly slip over into one of the dozens of technical and commercial lines already bidding for his services. If he is just a fossil, as some people still regard him, he may stick and people still regard him, he may stick and starve. But what of the "poor college." With a faculty built around these fossils who remain, and recruited from untrained and unambitious young men—or young women who may still find such salaries attractive—how long is the college that does not enlarge its pay checks going to appeal to high school graduates or their fathers and mothers?

WHEN PARENTS SPEND upwards of $400 a year on a son or daughter at college they expect their child to be taught by mature and experienced men, of wide knowledge, sound judgment, and attractive personality. They are not willing to entrust the best they have to fossils and amateurs. A church, a city, or a state undertakes the support of a college on the assumption that college training develops the power of leadership in public service. But boys and girls do not learn leadership from second and third-rate men, as every thinking citizen knows. Even the boys and girls themselves will promptly come to discount a college that is not inspired throughout by the influence of a staff of alert and well-informed teachers, whose opinions and counsels they thoroughly respect. Football victories and jazz music are all right in their place, but down in their hearts these youngsters agree with father in wanting something more.

FOR THIS REASON we are anxious to know what Ohio is doing in the matter of college salaries. We have heard of one Ohio college—a denominational one—which has increased all salaries 50 per cent. We hope there may be more. But the colleges supported by the state itself are in a more serious danger. Like all state universities this year, they are overflowing with students. We are informed that the total attendance at Ohio State, Miami, Ohio, Bowling Green, and Kent is over 9,000, as large as that of any state university in America. Unless some adequate taxation measure is promptly passed by the legislature salaries in these institutions of the state must remain unchanged, and the process of deterioration already threatening will begin in earnest. Ohio with all her taxable wealth and 9,000 young people eager for higher education cannot afford to lower the quality of training that is to be reflected in her future citizens. Revenues make salaries; salaries secure capable instruction; instruction produces leaders of men.

MISS LIMA: "The only shade of red of which we approve is that in the American flag."

Europe Without Capital

LORD ROBERT CECIL is authority for the statement that before the war four hundred million Europeans just managed to feed, clothe and shelter themselves, and to amass six months' capital on which to live. Now that capital has vanished; Europe is to all intents and purposes on a non-capital basis. Is there anything in this to encourage the farmer to grow produce for the great mass of people who have no contact with the land?

HUNGARY HAD ITS chance to prove the contention fused to exchange their produce for that of the communists. But the farmers refuseless scrip of the Soviets, and at a breath of outside influence Bela Kun fell. He and his followers were underfed and thousands of his unfortunate fellow-citizens were dead of starvation in an agricultural country.

THE CRY THAT is going up to-day against the blockade on Russia adds no strength to the radical cause. Under normal conditions Russia does not need to import foodstuffs. She is an exporting nation. The demand that food from America shall now support the Soviets at Petrograd is simply the demand that capital shall support abroad an order that is subversive of its strength to be of service to society. Capital is too much burdened at home to seek abroad such destructive philanthropy.

Concrete Flooring

MEMBERS OF THE board of education have announced that they will follow the suggestion of Fire Chief Mack and put a concrete floor over the heating apparatus at the Lincoln school building where the lives of 625 children are menaced by the defective furnaces. Their interest in this matter is commendable and it is hoped that their plan will prove thoroughly practical. If there is any doubt as to the advisability of such a scheme and if it will not make the building completely safe, then it should not be adopted and the building should be closed until it is made free from danger.

THE LIVES OF our children are too precious to be jeopardized for a single minute. Lack of money is not an argument for allowing them to sit daily in an out-of-date fire trap in which they may be burned up at any minute. If the money is not already on hand the people of Lima are not so close fisted that they will permit half a thousand of their future men and women to be placed in this danger.

PATCHING UP old buildings sometimes works to advantage, but in more cases it is like throwing money away. Doctor up the Lincoln building if practical; tear it down if not.

Short Ones

THE DEMOCRATS are going to have a hard time sidetracking William J. this time.

OPERATION OF THE railroads cost Uncle Sam $60,000,000 in November. Hardly an argument for further control.

left to pay the doctor. The Millers seldom have.

"The baby is not going to have pneumonia," the doctor assured Mrs. Miller. "If you'll stop feeding the poor little tot that dope and refrain from further irritation of his skin, he'll brighten up all right tomorrow. Give him nothing but a teaspoonful of this medicine every hour." And here is the medicine the doctor prepared:

Citrate of soda, one heaping tablespoonful; water, fifteen teaspoonfuls.

Medicine like that can do no harm, often does much good, costs a trifle, and may be given for anything that masquerades as a "cold."

File Your Tax Return
Or Uncle Sam Will Get You With Fine

By Internal Revenue Bureau.

WASHINGTON. — Twenty thousand persons last year paid a fine of $5 each for failure to file an income tax return for 1918, although their income for that year was not taxable. The revenue act provides an exemption of $1000 for single persons, $2000 for married persons and heads of families, and an additional exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon the taxpayer, if such person is under 18 years of age, or incapable of self-support.

The delinquents last year were persons whose income exactly equaled the amount of the exemptions and who considered it unnecessary, therefore, to file a return, and others whose income was nontaxable because of dependents, and who were under a similar mistaken impression.

For example, a single man with a net income of $1000 was supporting a sister, for whom he was allowing an exemption of $200, placing his income in the nontaxable list. For this reason he did not file a return. When his delinquency was discovered thru a return filed by his employer, who is required to report payments of $1000 or more to each employee, he was fined $5.

To avoid penalty, every person whose income for the last year equaled or exceeded $1000, or $2,000, according to their marital status, or their status as head of a family, must file a return.

The law makes no exceptions, the penalty being a fine of not more than $1000.

"I can't have any fun! I am such a sight with this eczema that people avoid me wherever I go. And the itching torments me so that I don't get any peace, anyhow."

Don't be discouraged! Even in severe, well-established cases of eczema, ringworm or similar skin troubles, Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap, usually relieves the itching at once and quickly clears the eruption away.

Doctors prescribe the Resinol treatment. All drug stores sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap.

THE HIGH COST OF SICKNESS A NIGHT CALL

(Note:—Sickness is always a financial strain and in these parlous times it increases the burden of a family. To one with common sense and economic sense may be consistent with safety. Cut out such talk in this series as it appears and save the articles for future reference when the series is completed.)

About twelve o'clock on a cold November night the doctor's doorbell aroused him rudely from the Conquest of Peru. The Miller baby had—yes, yes, of course—a "cold" and now, after three days of home treatment, the parents feared pneumonia. The fear of pneumonia is always greatest after bedtime somehow. Can it be that the double fee the doctor charges for a night visit has anything to do with it?

Mr. Miller had been on a strike for fifteen weeks. In that time the family income had been nine dollars a week, earned by a sixteen year old daughter who wrapped and packed kitchen ware in a factory nine to eleven hours a day. This week the strike was off, and Mr. Miller was again earning his weekly stipend of $22.50. The Millers were country people who had moved to the city a year or two ago to "get some of the big money." A family of seven, with a total income of $31.50 per week.

The baby had coryza pure and simple, but the mother had been feeding the baby some dope in the form of "perfectly harmless" cough medicine, and babies are extremely sensitive to narcotics.

But what do the Millers care how much opium, morphine, heroin, paregoric, cannabis indica or other narcotic they feed a sick baby as long as the stuff quiets the child?

On the table there stood also a half empty jar of, oh, call it Bunk-erine. This was according to the almanac a marvelous external remedy for croup, cough, cold, consumption and such trifles. It had added considerably to the baby's misery by blistering the child's chest. It is a shame to apply such stuff as mustard or oil of mustard to an infant's skin, but what do the Millers care about the baby as long as it pleases the drug seller?

The bottle of harmful cough dope had cost Mr. Miller seventy-five cents. The box of Bunk-erine had set him back fifty cents. He had no money

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is an unfortunate day. Storms at sea with loss of life and cargo are indicated. Agriculture will prosper under this rule.

Romance and marriage will be unfortunate today. It is not a good rule under which to marry or become engaged.

Divorces will be numerous this winter and scandal will increase as the year progresses.

Persons whose birthdate this is will have an active year. Children born today will be very popular and lovable.

What Will Happen When The Railroads Go Back?

Will lower wages, the present scale, or even higher wages, be paid to employees? Will freight and passenger rates be increased? Will the public enjoy better service? These are a few of the questions that are current in the minds of the American public since the announcement of President Wilson that the railroads will be returned to their owners on March 1st.

THE LITERARY DIGEST in its leading article in the issue of January 10th, presents a comprehensive survey of the railroad question. It gives the arguments pro and con for private control, for government ownership, for the installation of the Plumb plan, etc. The article is graphically illustrated with pertinent cartoons on various phases of the situation.

FIRE LOSS LAST YEAR $57,469

Chief Mack Shows Result of Blazes in Report

Lima during 1919 suffered a fire loss of $57,469, according to the annual report of Fire Chief Mack, submitted Friday morning to the Director of Public Safety.

That an average loss of $189.64 was caused from every alarm and an average loss of $157.44 for every day in the year.

That the per capita loss based upon a population of 55,000 was $1.04.

That January was the banner month of the year with 41 alarms being registered for that month.

That there were 10 false alarms during the year and that there was but one general alarm during the year.

That sparks from chimneys caused 54 alarms.

That one-half of the entire loss was the result of four large fires during the year.

In presenting the statement of fire loss the chief brought out the fact that the entire fire loss for 1919 was smaller by $768.64, than the loss of 1918.

The great decrease in fire loss for 1919 compared to that of 1918 was the result of a clean-up campaign held here during the last year, the chief claims in the report.

CLEVELAND SNOWBOUND
CLEVELAND—Clevelanders plowed their way to work Friday thru the heaviest snowfall of the winter. City car lines were operating with difficulty, while two of the interurban lines entering the city were virtually tied up. Steam roads reported traffic from 30 to 40 minutes late, while the postoffice announced that incoming and outgoing mail would be delayed.

Suits, Coats, Dresses and Skirts
Reduced at BLUEM'S

If you have not visited the sale of Ladies' and Misses' Outer Garments, going on this month on the 3rd Floor, you have missed a treat—The values are even more than we care to describe. You have an opportunity of buying a high class garment for a very small amount—an opportunity given once every year at this store—always just prior to our inventory.

You will find garments of quality—garments that have been left over from our fall and winter stock, due to having too many in some cases not the proper size for the customer in other cases and for various other reasons.

There are several Suits, snappy in the extreme—of the very best quality materials and in practically all shades—Coats are here in abundance—due to the cold weather coming late, we have many coats on hand we otherwise would not have had—you can secure a real bargain by making a choice here—

Dresses in silks and serges—and all the wanted materials—Dresses that you have seen in our stock since the fall season opened. True they have been here several months—all stores have these left overs—and we are offering them on racks—at ridiculous low prices considering their quality.

The GREAT RICHARDS will appear in Bluem's Store Monday afternoon, between 3:30 and 5:30—on every floor unless he is discovered before he gets on each floor.

To the first person, not an employee of the store, who discovers the great artist and taps him on the shoulder as specified in the News, we will give an order for $10 (Ten Dollars) worth of BLUEM GOODS—this order will be good in any part of the store—there will be lots of excitement and whether you come to buy or not doesn't matter—you are welcome to take part in the contest just the same.

The bargains being offered during the January Clearance Sale, in every department, are worthy of your notice—prices have been reduced right and left and you can make a considerable saving on purchases if made during this sale. We cannot do more than offer you QUALITY GOODS at prices oftentimes lower than you pay for inferior goods.

FASHIONABLE NANCY

Mrs. Ruth Kerr Hyter, of south Pierce street, entertained with an attractive luncheon bridge at the Lima Club on Thursday. Guests included members of the Amity club, The Peacock room in which the table was laid was made resplendent with attractively arranged baskets of narcissus, pink sweet peas, and greenery, tied with pink tulle. The nut baskets and place cards were also clever pink affairs.

Following the luncheon bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Harry Workman was presented with the club prize and Mrs. A. McNaughton, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Carl Renz were awarded the guest prizes.

Covers were laid for: Mrs. V. H. Her, Mrs. M. A. Wagner, Mrs. Harry Workman, Mrs. E. J. Curries, Mrs. T. R. Thomas, Mrs. G. R. Clayton, Mrs. Charles Gamble, Mrs. Carl Jensen, Mrs. Ben Schultz, Mrs. Morgan Newton, Mrs. Frank Seals, Mrs. Emil Levy, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Carl Renz, Mrs. Miller Landick, Mrs. A. McNaughton, Mrs. T. A. Winn, Mrs. Homer Winn, Mrs. Esther Bates, Mrs. John Kerr, Mrs. Wilson Lowery, and Mrs. Arthur Miller.

Miss Margaret Dale Yant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Yant, of west Vine street, became the bride of Clyde L. Holtzclaw, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. C. Spayde, pastor of Bethany Lutheran church. The couple will make their home with Mr. Holtzclaw's aunt, Mrs. Clarence Green, of 939 south Ellacomb street.

The members of the Laurel club gathered at the home of Mrs. Carl Miller, of east Eureka street, on Wednesday afternoon. The color scheme of red and green was used effectively throughout the rooms of the Miller home. In a clever contest induced in Mrs. John Keller, Mrs. Benjamin Ode and Mrs. John Eversole, were successful. Mrs. Glen Eversole, Mrs. H. L. Reid and Mrs. Rex Maynard sang, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carl Miller. In the serving of a dainty luncheon the hostess was assisted by her guest, Mrs. John Eversole.

The next meeting of the club will be held next Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. B. Tobie, of 556 west Haller street.

The King's Herald society of the Trinity church will meet on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. S. M. Williams, of 743 west North street. All members and their mothers are urged to attend. # Love and Married Life

By IDA McGLONE GIBSON

For the next few weeks things went on rather smoothly. I did not see Madam Gordon. In fact I had not seen her since she visited me at the hospital. However, she sent me a number of polite messages by my nurse.

I was soon able to go riding, and Alice took me often in her electric John. I asked her rather diffidently one day if I would go motoring with him, and seemed quite pleased when I accepted the invitation with alacrity.

"I didn't know but you would be afraid to go with me after our accident," he said.

"Not at all," I answered. "And don't you think, John, now that I am well enough to go out, I can dispense with the nurse? She has been very sweet to me, but I am really tired of having her here."

"I'm awfully glad to hear you say that, Katherine," said John, "for I shall be much relieved when I can have you all to myself again. Would you like to go up to the Country club?" he asked.

I knew by the way John's eyes rested on me that he thought I was looking particularly well, and he had a pride in showing me off to his friends, but he didn't tell me so.

NOT INORDINATELY VAIN.

I wonder why when people live together and see each other every day, they do forget to voice the pleasant thoughts they have of one another. I do not think I am inordinately vain, and I know by John's face that way to him, he enjoys it. Someone very lately, in a study of married life, has said: "In this life of ours the two great essentials are comfort and happiness. We never entirely neglect comfort—even the poorest and even the hardest take some precaution to equip themselves with a measure of this commodity. But with happiness it is different. With happiness the greatest of all needs, we concern ourselves not at all.

I learned my bitter lesson so soon. It seems to me now, while I look back that even before John and I arrived home little things happened which made me understand that he had completely changed his feelings toward me. I do not mean to say that he did not love me any more, but the old story of the man who chases the car until he is out of breath and when he catches it, enters any with a high of satisfaction composes himself to read his paper, is pregnant with a great truth.

Miss Helen Meyers informally entertained at the R. L. Fletcher home on Thursday evening. Dancing and cards were enjoyed at a late hour a delicious luncheon was served. Those enjoying the evening were: Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Chew, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mummaugh, Misses Irene Clark, Ruth Keating, Louisa Lewis, Helen Meyers, Ruth Corwin, Messrs. Earl Keating, Edward Wallace, Carl Gierhart, Harold Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fletcher.

Mrs. George Moore, of Greentown, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cunningham, of west Spring street, has returned to her home.

Happiness is taken for granted. We assume that it will be ours, and as a general result, it falls us—completely.

I do not believe that one can find happiness unless one also finds appreciation. Then why should appreciation after marriage be allowed to wither? I am quite sure that neither men or women change in themselves and the whole litany of the intimacies of married life seem to crowd out entirely any sense of admiration and sometimes of consideration.

"For to admire and be admired" is a quotation which made an old song popular because it appealed to that love of approbation in every human being. A man as well as a woman loves flattery, and I am afraid neither man nor woman is apt to give it to the one with whom they come in daily contact.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE INADEQUATE
To repeat a thing once said bores us, and yet there never was a time when I wanted to find another word to express my love and admiration for John, although he often told me that the English language proved very inadequate when one was in love.

Oh, I learned my bitter lesson so soon. It seems to me now, while I look back that even before John and I arrived home little things happened which made me understand that he had completely changed his feelings toward me. I do not mean to say that he did not love me any more, but the old story of the man who chases the car until he is out of breath and when he catches it, enters any with a high of satisfaction composes himself to read his paper, is pregnant with a great truth.

I don't really think I am too sensitive, too self-centered, too introspective, but I was beginning to think that I hadn't enough to do. John insisted upon keeping every possible task and decision away from me.

I could have spent several enjoyable able weeks refurbishing and redecorating our rooms. I could have become really interested in making a budget to cover our personal and household expenses. If John had given me any kind of an allowance, I think that this is one reason there is so much unrest among the married women of the well-to-do middle class. It is a kind of fetish with a modern business man that his wife shall have nothing to do; when if he knew it, work is the greatest blessing in the world. I think it is bigger than love, because work consoles you for the loss of love and I have found that love never consoles one for the loss of some kind of occupation.

Did Not Have Time
One reason why our grandmothers and mothers were so much more satisfied than we are, was that they did not have time to think about themselves.

Oh, if John would only treat me as a human being!

These were the thoughts that came rushing to me during our silent ride to the Country Club. A number of John's and my friends came to the porch to meet me as I alighted from the car, and Karl Shepard clasped both my hands and kissed one after the other. "Silly ass!" I heard John mut-

"THE PALISER CASE"

BY EDGAR SALTUS
Copyright, 1919 by the Wheeler Syndicate Every Evening in the News.

With an air of detachment, Jones added: "Paliser turned to see who was there. A sword-cane told him." The musician's lips twitched, his face had contracted, his hand now was on his breast. "I wish Cassy would hurry. She's gone for amy!"

"Is it far?"

"The corner. Are you going to do anything?"

Jones shook his head. "I don't need to."

The sunken eyes were upon him. "Why do you say that?"

"You are an honest man."

The sunken eyes wavered. "At least I never supposed they would arrest Lennox. How could I?"

"No one could have supposed it. Besides, in your own conscience you were justified, were you not?"

"You know about that, too?"

"Yes, I know about that."

The Rigoletto disc now had been replaced by another, one from which a voice brayed, a voice nasal, jocular, felonious.

"That beast ought to be shot," Jones added.

The musician raised himself a little. "You don't misjudge her, do you?"

Jones, annoyed at the swirl tossed about, had turned from him. He turned back. "Believe me, Mr. Cara, there is no one for whom I have a higher respect."

A spasm seized the musician. For a moment, save for the effort at breath, he was silent. Then feebly he said: "I wish she would hurry."

"Can I do anything?"

"Yes, tell me. Do you condemn no human scales for any soul, Tho, me?"

The novelist hesitated. "There are to be sure—"

"What?"

"It might have been avoided. As it is, they will suspect her."

"Naturally. They can't hold Lennox on a paper-cutter—that belongs to me, and a few empty words said in my presence and which, if necessary, I did not hear. They can't hold him on that. But when they learn, as they will, the circumstances of your daughter's misadventure, they will arrest her."

"Merciful God!"

The jeopardy to her, a jeopardy previously undiscovered, but which then shaken at him, instantly took shape, twisted his mouth into appalling grimace that medieval art gave to the damned.

"And you don't want that," Jones remotely resumed.

"Want it?" Galvanized by the shock, the musician sat suddenly up. "Last night, after I got back, I slept like a log. This morning, I felt if I had not done it, I would still have it to do and that satisfied me. But afterwards, when I learned about Lennox, it threw me here. Now wards and punishments which, we are told, await us?"

The musician closed his eyes. "Thank you," said Jones, who began to write:

I, Angelo Cara, being in full possession of my senses and conscious of the immanence of death, do solemnly swear to the truth of this dying declaration, which, I also solemnly swear, is made by me without any collusion with Keith Lennox. First: I firmly believe in God, in a life hereafter, and in future rewards and punishments. Second: I alone am guilty of the murder of Montagu Paliser, Jr., whom I killed without aid or accomplice and without pity or knowledge of any other person.

Jones, wishing that in his law-school days he had crammed less and studied more, looked up.

"I cannot compliment you on your pen, Mr. Cara. But then, pen and ink always seem so emphatic. Personally, I prefer a pencil. Writing with a pencil is like talking in a whisper."

It was in an effort to deodorize the atmosphere, charged with the ghastly, that he said it. The declaration did not appear to notice. His sunken eyes had been closed. Widely they opened.

"The other side!"

Jones blotted the declaration. "The other side cannot be very different from this side. Not that part of it at least which people, such as you and I, first visit. A bit farther on, I suppose we prepare for our return here. For that matter, it will be very careless of us, if we don't. We relive and relive and relive and relive endlessly, ad infinitum. The Church does not put it in just that manner but the allegory of the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting amounts, perhaps, to the same thing. 'Never the spirit was born, the spirit shall cease to be never.' That is the way Edwin Arnold expressed it after the 'Gita' had expressed it for him. But probably

"You acknowledge this—" the notary began. But at the moment Cassy returned and it may be, distracted by her mumbled the rest, took the reply for granted, applied the stamp, exhibited his teeth. Then, at once, the hall had him.

Cassy turned to Jones. Her face disclosed as many emotions as an opal has colors. Relief, longing, uncertainty, and distress were there, ringed in beauty.

"Miss Austen ought to know how she has misjudged him. Do you suppose she would let me see her?"

Bully for you, thought Jones, who said: "I cannot imagine anyone refusing you anything."

In speaking, he heard something. Cassy turned. She too had heard it. But what?

With a cry she ran to the sofa. "Daddy!"

His face was grey, the grey that dawn has, the grey than which there is nothing greyer and yet in which there is light. The light was there. His upper-lip was just a little raised.

It was as though he had seen something that pleased him and of which he was about to tell.

"Daddy!"

Jones followed her. He drew down the rug and bent over. After a moment, he drew the rug up, well up, and with a forefinger, saluted.

Cassy, tearing the covering back, flung herself there. Jones could not see her tears. He heard them. Her sobs shook.

Worn Out Women

Many Women Feel Tired All the Time And Sleep Fails To Refresh Them.

They feel languid, faint and weak especially in the morning; the appetite becomes variable, digestion impaired, they often have headache and pain in the back, hips and loins, cold hands and feet. The blood becomes thin and watery, the nerves lacking in strength, the complexion sallow, the cheeks sunken, the bust flattened and reduced and the disposition irritable and nervous. The purpose of Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets is to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. Your complexion will be improved, the weak parts made strong and life becomes a joy instead of daily misery. Try them today and see how much better you will feel and look. Watch yourself before taking them. Sold by Druggists at 60 cents, Special, (Stronger made Active 90 cents.)

Here is a New and Modern Candy Which Helps Complexion

Many Women Owe Fine Complexions to Candy Antiseptic.

To the delicious, palatable little Partola candies of peppermint flavor many women owe, in great measure, the beautiful complexions they possess. Partola candies are known to their thousands of users as "The Doctor in Candy Form." They possess both laxative and antiseptic properties, therefore accomplish a double purpose.

First: They remove the many affections of the digestive organs which result in pimply, blotched skins and ruined complexions. They do all that any laxative can do—and do it gently and effectively.

Then: They exert very valuable antiseptic action on the whole digestive tract and tend to overcome the millions of disease germs which breed there and render the stomach and bowels pure and antiseptic.

Partola candies are liked by every one—young and old—because of their delicious taste and mild, easy antiseptic action. All druggists sell them in 25c, 50c and $1.00 boxes. Get yours today from your druggist.

Mr. George W. Heeg Tells How Cuticura Healed His Rash

"I became affected with a rash as the result of swimming in extremely hot weather, and my entire body was covered with red pimples. The skin was inflamed and red, and the pimples caused an intense itching and burning, and also loss of sleep."

"After repeated applications of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap with the Cuticura Ointment, I was healed." (Signed) George W. Heeg, 24 Maxine Pl., Akron, Ohio, Feb. 5, 1919.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health. The Soap to cleanse and purify, the Ointment to soothe and heal, the Talcum to powder and perfume.

2 ALARMS DAILY IS FIRE RECORD

Firemen Kept Busy Since Opening of 1920.

Receiving one alarm a day is getting to be old fashioned for the Lima departments and nothing less than two in ten minutes has been considered good business during the month of January to date.

The speed record of the present month was continued late Thursday when two alarms were received at the Central station almost simultaneously.

One proved to be a false alarm with but slight damage resulting of the other—at the residence of Gilbert Webb, 602 North Main street Thursday afternoon. The central fire apparatus answered the call and extinguished the blaze which started from a overheated gas stove. Damage was slight.

JURY INDICTS 2 FOR GAMBLING

Roush and Cable Join Hands with Mayor in Crusade.

Two secret indictments, charging gambling and keeping a gambling room, were returned by the recent grand jury.

Investigation of gambling in the city followed close on the heels of Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt's activities to rid the city of games of chance.

"Both indictments are against local men," Prosecutor Cable said Thursday night.

Police Chief Roush joined hands with Prosecuting Attorney John L. Cable and as a result persons who are supposed to have information concerning gambling were summoned before the grand jury.

Irene Allen, proprietress of the Ohio restaurant, 131 East Wayne street, was indicted for keeping a house of ill repute. She gave bond for $250 for her appearance in court for trial, when arrested Thursday.

Orders for arrest in the twelve secret indictments returned by the grand jury were placed in the hands of Sheriff C. W. Baxter Thursday. The Allen woman was the first arrested.

DEMOCRATS DESERT SEATS TO ATTEND MEETING

WASHINGTON. — There were many empty seats on the Democratic side of the house and senate Thursday, the congressmen deserting the capitol to participate in the national committee meeting.

Senator Sherman, Illinois, Republican, offered for printing in the congressional records extracts from Andrew Jackson's state paper.

"Inasmuch as we seem about to underwrite the British Empire, I think these extracts ought to be printed for enlightenment of these gentlemen who will censure the subject Thursday night."

CASE DISMISSED. — The suit of Claude F. Railing against James A. Jacobs, for damages, has been dismissed. Death of Railing some months ago left the case without prosecution.

VIC PANS OHIO'S LEGISLATURE

Says It Doesn't Know How To Cut Expenditures

WOOSTER—State Auditor Donahy "panned" the Ohio legislature in a message sent by him to the Jackson Day meeting of Wayne county Democrats here Thursday night. Donahy stressed the point that in 1919, it took $219,000,000 from direct and indirect taxation to run state and local government in Ohio. "The 33rd general assembly," said Donahy's message, "has been in session a year, and its efforts to pass inheritance tax laws, income tax laws, and to take further taxes from the pockets of the people overshadow all other considerations. They have never discovered the old-fashioned truth that when expenditures exceed income it is wisdom to cut expenditures to the bone. "The legislature, like many unthinking people, is in the grip of a huge wave of extravagance. Economics is dead and forgotten in Ohio political life. "When Jackson was president in 1830 the public debt of the federal government was $43,565,000. Last year the debts of the Ohio public school system alone amounted to $77,759,000 and the combined debts of the state to $456,487,000."

LIMA DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

ST. MARYS—Carl Geiger and Helen Kohlhorst, both of St. Marys, were married Thursday, at the bride's parental home. They will live on the William Geiger farm.

ST. MARYS—Dr. G. L. Lyne was appointed at a salary of $1,500 per year by the new Auglaize county health board to act as health commissioner. An added $400.00 provides for the quarantining and fumigation of infected premises. The appointment is for one year. It is understood that Dr. Lyne does not devote his entire time to the health commission, but he declares the place shall receive his "first attention at all times."

ST. MARYS—A reception was tendered by Mercer Lodge No. 121, Free and Accepted Masons of St. Marys, to Capt. William Schulenberg of New Bremen, fifty years identified with the fraternity and a member of the St. Marys lodge. A gold-headed cane and a "fifty-candle cake" were presented Capt. Schulenberg.

SCHEDULE RAID ON POLICE BARRACKS

Assault on Quarters Nipped in Nick of Time.

LONDON—Three extraordinary documents, two of which were written in code, containing directions for a raid by Irish revolutionaries on certain police barracks in County Galway, were read during the trial of John Farrell, at Renmore Depot, on the charge of being in possession of seditious documents.

One of these documents, which police testified, were found in the home of Farrell's father at Wolf-Tone-Terrace, Athlone, directed that no quarter should be shown inmates of the barracks, it evidently being the intention of the revolutionaries to carry out the assault while the police were asleep.

The first of the papers read: Brigade Instructions, Headquarters Moate.

All unarmed men are to fall back on Moate bringing with them all the implements possible—spades, shovels, picks and everything of use. Fourth battalion will act as already instructed. All police barracks are to be raided, main roads and railways made use of in each battalion district. All armed men must be mounted on bicycles.

The second document in code read:

All police barracks, except those situated in towns such as Athlone, where there is an overwhelming superiority, must be rushed simultaneously and no quarter given to the police. Let the officers of "A" company, therefore, prepare plans to deal with the police barracks in the districts which they are to operate. I have secured twenty detonators and fuses; get all the cans possible, say six inches by four inches, and mix bits of scrap iron, half-inch pieces, with cement. See to this instantly.

The third document which was not coded, read:

Ask commandants if they have found all places in district where arms are kept, and all possible information re same for raiding purposes, to hold account of same until I call Brigade Council. Commandants to get the names of each R. I. C. station, number of police in each and place where they get provisions.

Commanders to get number of soldiers in district where they are situated, to what particular branch of the service they belong, what aerodromes, if any, and whether for constructing of training purposes; also mention the number of guns. It is necessary to ascertain as far as possible where provisions come from.

Farrell declined to recognize the right of the court to try him, but cross-examined the police witnesses, one of whom stated that he could not say if the box in which the documents were found or the bedroom belonged to Farrell, who submitted that the police had not proved that the documents were his.

He was found "not guilty" and discharged.

Joseph Rourke and Stephen Wise were acquitted by court-martial at Galway, the former for being in possession of ammunition and the latter for having a revolver in his possession.

The ammunition and revolver were found in a tin box in Wyse's house with a membership card of the Irish Volunteers containing Rourke's name.

HYPNOTIC POWERS OF GEORGES CARPENTIER

The French Champion
As Europe Sees Him

By H. E. BECHTOLD

LONDON.—"L' hypnotisme?" Carpentier smiled. "C'est la blague!" In other words—bunkum!

So the game Frenchman who won the championship of Europe by knocking out Joe Beckett of England in 72 seconds disposes of the widely-rooted European belief that Carpentier and his coach manager, Francois Descamps, hypnotize opponents in the ring.

Descamps tapped Carpentier's right and said:

"There's the hypnotism, monsieur."

But Europe isn't entirely convinced.

Stuart Martin writes the uncanny theory that Carpentier's "unseen partner"—Descamps' magnetic personality—is projected along with Carpentier's confidence in such a way as to convince opponents of defeat.

Martin springs the theory of outright hypnotism, too, but he says: "Projection of personality has a lot to do with Carpentier's success."

Carpentier's own statement of his career as Descamps' hypnotic subject is interesting. He says:

"After Descamps found me in a coal mine near Lens, we used to travel thru the country where I would fight in cafes at night.

"First we staged a fight with feet; then English boxing followed by an acrobatic turn.

"As a gigantic finale I allowed myself to be sent into a trance," by Descamps and did "thought reading."

The smile in Carpentier's eyes suggested that this was fake stuff, merely to entertain the crowd.

But writing in all seriousness in his book, "My Methods," he devotes several pages to his ring psychology.

"Self-confidence," he says, "if not overdone, is the most potent agent to success."

He points to Tommy Burns' belief in "mentally subduing" opponents and points to the subconscious influence of the start that Herrmann would not resign.

William H. Edwards, collector of internal revenue and Judge Landis of Chicago, were being mentioned as probable successors to Herrmann.

Decision of the commission to investigate the alleged world's series scandal was favorably received. Official action of baseball's supreme court can do much to chase the talk of a fixed series, it is believed.

SHERRY MAGEE GOES TO COAST LEAGUE

NEW YORK — Sherwood Magee, lately released from the Cincinnati Reds will play next year on the Pacific coast, according to a story here Thursday. He is said to be negotiating with Manager Charley Graham of the San Francisco Pacific Coast League. Magee is reported to have expressed his desire to finish his long baseball career in California.

When Carpentier met Bandsman Tire, the Englishman, in Paris shortly before the war, papers said "he appeared as a man in a dream."

Whatever the truth, the fact is that at the fight between Beckett and Carpentier, the magnetic little bundle of nerves, Descamps, trained his gaze on Beckett almost as soon

"I WASN'T HYPNOTIZED," SAYS BOMBARDIER

Bombardier Wells says: "I was not hypnotized when Carpentier defeated me. The Descamps suggestion is absurd. The right, not hypnotism, knocked me out. It comes so fast you can't dodge it."

James White, well-known British fight promoter, says: "Descamps helps Carpentier fight, there is no doubt about that. This way, by his wonderful foresight and judgment, Carpentier enters the ring with an air of dominance imparted to him by Descamps' wonderful gift in making himself acquainted with psychology and peculiarities of the man who is to be. Special training is applied and it is as tho Carpentier were entering the ring against a man whom he had been fighting and knew all about and was sure he could whip."

Gilbert Collins, psychologist, refers to Carpentier's career as hypnotic subject and adds: "Students of hypnotism know that the power of a post-hypnotic suggestion properly administered, is almost irresistible."

RUTH SALE COLOSSAL BONE OF BASEBALL BARGAINS

By N. E. BROWN

The reported sale of Babe Ruth, wonder-slugger of baseball, by the Red Sox to the Yankees for $125,000 stands out as the greatest deal ever engineered in baseball.

IT ALSO STANDS OUT AS THE GREATEST BONE IN THE GAME'S HISTORY.

As far as Babe Ruth is concerned he is worth twice the price—and treble that amount. If he hits at his 1915 clip he will fill the Polo grounds 77 times next season. The Polo grounds holds about 35,000 people. Figure the profits yourself!

But Harry Frazee, baseball's troublemaker, has betrayed the confidence of the Boston fans. When he sold Babe Ruth, Frazee sold out the fans, too. Ruth was the man the fans worshipped—and paid daily to see perform. When the team dropped out of the pennant race last season the park was full each day because of Ruth's presence. These fans have been counting the days until they could get another look at Babe and watch him smash more records.

Frazee never has been popular in Boston. His disposition of Mays and other stars soured the fans on him. Ruth was their only solace. The sale of Ruth is the last straw.

Frazee, by that move, has sounded his own death knell in baseball—unless he has millions to throw into what cannot be other than a losing venture.

More than ordinary attention is being paid by basketball fans to the game between South and Central girls quintets as a preliminary to the South-Bowling Green contest Friday evening at the local gym.

Members of the two teams have been practicing daily in preparation for the game and each five will be in there to cop the honors.

Dope on game seems to be in favor of South High but Central girls claim that dope will be shattered in the coming game and that their colors will be flying high in the finish.

The lineups for the two teams have not been announced, but the strongest players will be used by each.

NEW YORK — Dave Driscoll and Dave Mackay, New Jersey promoters started Friday after the Leonard-Dundee fight which was barred Thursday from New Haven.

Many other offers have been made for the fight, according to Billy Gibson, manager of the champion, who predicts that the feud may be settled in Providence, New Orleans, Boston, Canton or Milwaukee.

WANTS CARPENTIER TO MEET FULTON

NEW YORK — The Newark, (N. J.) Sportsmen's club will pay Georges Carpentier $75,000 for a fight. In making this offer to Manager Descamps, the club made it clear that it was not angling for the Frenchman's services against Jack Dempsey.

The Newark promoters want the aviator-fighter to give the fans an exhibition against Fred Fulton, Frank Moran or some of the runner-up men that might be selected by him.

The bout would be staged in the event that the European champion came to this country to do some theatrical work.

PARIS — Charles Cochrane, British fight promoter has an option on the services of Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, until February 2, Manager Descamps said today in a statement to the United Press.

Descamps denied he had accepted any other offers for Carpentier's services.

"Naturally we cannot accept any offers before the Cochrane option expires."

THREE REDS SIGN CINCINNATI — President Herrmann, of the Reds, announced Thursday Harry Saltee, pitcher, Morris Rath, second baseman, Charles See, utility outfielder, had signed contracts to again play with the world champions in 1920.

NAME NEW PREXY IN ONE MONTH

CINCINNATI — The first National League meeting held away from New York for years, will take place at Chicago February 10, the day before the magnates of the National and American Leagues will get together in a joint session to act on many matters, including the selection of a successor to Garry Herrmann, as chairman of the National Commission.

John Heydler, president of the National league, decided on the Chicago meeting after he had agreed with President Johnson to hold the joint meeting at the Windy City. The American League also will meet in Chicago February 10. Johnson said.

Johnson also expects to call a special meeting of his league previous to this date.

Johnson and Heydler will draw up the 1920 playing schedules of the two leagues while hunting bear on the ranch of Judge Abrams, near Tulsa, La. in the next two weeks.

Heydler accepted Johnson's invitation to the bear hunt while both were attending the National Commission meeting here Thursday at which Herrmann resigned from the commission.

They will start from Chicago for Tulsa in a day or two. The late Theodore Roosevelt at one time headed a big bear hunt at the spot where Johnson and Heydler will seek Bruin.

Herrmann said Friday he is thru as chairman of the commission and did not think he would return to the office even should those who oppose him, failing to find a suitable man for the place, withdraw their opposition.

"REGULAR GIRL" TO PLAY RETURN DATE

Majestic to Show Popular Picture Starting Sunday

ELSIE JANIS IS THE STAR

Typical American Girl in Timely Plot

FORECAST AND COMMENT
BY ESTHER WAGNER
MOVIE fans will have an opportunity to see how a regular girl behaves when Selznick Pictures present Elsie Janis in "A Regular Girl" at the Majestic Theater, starting Sunday, January 11, a return engagement of this popular star. Miss Janis, it will be remembered, forsook the stage to entertain her pals in the A. E. F., and much credit is due the actress for her untiring work in France. "A Regular Girl" is said to be the most charming play released for some time. The authors, Frances Marion and Edmund Goulden, have taken a typical American girl, full of life, fun and ginger, and placed her in a timely plot. There are many novel scenes in the picture, including a circus in action and a day's outing at Coney Island.

VAUDEVILLE
ORPHEUM — Every girl and boy in Lima — if the theatre will hold them — is expected to attend the special children's bargain-priced matinee at the Orpheum tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to enjoy the greatest novelty ever brought to this city and one of the most delightful theatrical entertainments on tour this year. This offering is the Midget Follies, a musical comedy company with seventeen Lilliputians, neither of whom is larger than the average child of three or four years, though fully developed in mind and body. They are exactly like the Lilliputians of "Gulliver's Travels." With the Midget Follies is the youngest, loveliest, liveliest and in every wise the most beautiful and bewitching singing and dancing chorus ever seen at the Orpheum. There was a complete change of musical comedy offering at the Orpheum Thursday for the last half of this week and Sunday. With the change of comic opera genre, there also was a change of dazzling costumes, special scenery and stage settings.

THE SCREEN
FAUROT — That motion picture acting isn't all easy dressed up work is illustrated in Enid Bennett's latest Paramount line photoplay "Stepping Out," which is at the Faurot today.
In this picture Enid Bennett appears as a poor man's wife and the high salaried star has to sew, cook, iron and even get down on her hands and knees and scrub.
In the opening scenes of the picture, she sure has some drudgery, but in the finish she has a chance to wear some fine clothes and the happy change in the woman is designed by the author, C. Gardner Sullivan, to please the feminine fancy.
The picture is an interesting drama with considerable comedy sparkling throughout. Miss Bennett is supported by a cast of well known players including Julia Faye, Niles Welch, Gertrude Clair and Wm. S. Conklin.
Topics of the Day, the Paramount Magazine and a new Capitol Comedy, "A Much Needed Rest," complete the highly enjoyable program.

REGENT — "Thirty Minutes in Laughland" could well be the title of Charlie Chaplin's latest million dollar comedy which is now showing at the popular Regent Theatre in addition to Pauline Frederick in "The Loves of Letty." The theme of Chaplin's picture, "A Day's Pleasure," is a strong avowal of the fact that often what is intended to be a day's pleasure turns out to be a day of intense labor. For Charlie's troubles begin from the very moment that he endeavors to start with his family from the bungalow to the ferry. The family touring car — a remnant of the Dark Ages — cuts up "something scandalous," which fact does not deter the world's greatest comedian in the least.

"The Loves of Letty" tells an absorbing dramatic story and presents Miss Frederick in one of the best roles she has had. The central character is that of a girl of today, in straightened circumstances who accepts the attentions of three admirers. Thru the heroine is proven the fact that those who defy the law of love for material gain reap only unhappiness.
Bessie Barriscale will be presented unday and Monday at the Regent in her Robertson-Cole production, "The Beckoning Roads," screen adaptation of the celebrated book by Jeanne Judson.

LYRIC — "Blind Husbands" coming to the Lyric Sunday shows up the breed of the Hun officer on pleasure bent.
Eric Stroheim himself a former officer of the Austrian army, depicts the role of Lieutenant von Steuben, Francisella Billington supports him as Margaret Armstrong. The presentation of "Blind Husbands" is enhanced by the presence on the screen of such popular players as Sam DeGrasse H. Gibson-Gowland, Valerie Germanprez and Jack Perrin.

In addition to a smashing good story, unsurpassed scenery, brilliant dramatic situations and praiseworthy photographic effects contribute to the value of the production.
Stroheim, the starring villain, is the author and the director of the work.
"Blind Husbands" is a photodrama that will linger long in the memory. It will continue at the Lyric theater until Tuesday night.

GREAT QUANTITIES OF GAS
FOUND IN NEW FIELD
MCKEESPORT, Pa. — Gas in ever-increasing quantities is being found in the wonderful new field near here. One of the latest wells to come in is shooting 30,000,000 cubic feet a day, and this is not the largest.

If the development continues northeastward for any distance this field may supply heat for industries of Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati and other cities for a score or more of years, according to Dr. George H. Ashley, chief of the Bureau of Topographic and Geological Survey of Pennsylvania.
Excitement throughout the whole district continues at a high pitch and derricks are going up as fast as it is humanly possible to construct them.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Former President Taft will be unable to appear on the High School Lecture Course on Friday evening, January 9th.
CAPTAIN NELSON DANCEY will be here, however, and will lecture on the subject "UNCLE SAM AND JOHN BULL." This is a lecture dedicated to a closer and better union of the English-speaking race. IT IS NOT A WAR LECTURE although many of the incidents are drawn out of the recent war. The lecture is founded on a chain of incidents, pre-war, during-war and after-war, and it is a message that every red blooded American should hear. The principle of Americanization is played very strongly in this lecture.
Captain Dancey is a great lecturer and every one in Lima should hear this great lecture. Season tickets will admit to this lecture, and single admission may be had for twenty-five cents.
Sidney Landon will appear on the Lecture Course, February 11, and former President Taft will be here March 11.

M. P. GIVES TIPS ON HOW

TO EARN $50,000 A YEAR
LONDON. — C. F. Higham, M. P., gives the following tips on how to make yourself worth $50,000 a year:
Most healthy men and women were potential earners of $50,000 a year, but they waited for opportunity to knock at the door.
Be careful of your personal appearance. Dress simply and well. Many a man has missed his chances by having a dirty collar.
If you are out of a job and have only $50 in the world, spend it all on dress.
Don't envy successful men. Copy them.
Give up any idea of an 8-hour day. Love your work, and think of it day and night.
Make mistakes.
Develop capacity to inspire others.
Take advice.
Look prosperous — act "prosperous."

Drummer Doing His Bit

"I am a traveling salesman and have met others who, like myself, were suffering from indigestion, stomach trouble and gastritis. Since taking 3 weekly doses of May's Wonderful Remedy I am very much pleased with its results, so much so that I have induced others to take it and they too were marvelously helped." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Hunter's 2 Drug Stores, Baldwin's Central Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

Warren Man Has Recommended It To His Friends?

Often had to get up five or six times during the night on account of kidney trouble.
Since taking the new medicine Deeco, sleeps all night long and is in good all round shape.
"I am 82 years old and have lived in Warren all my life and I think every one in town knows me well," declared Mr. C. C. Downs, of 702 S. Main street.
"For some time I've suffered from my kidneys; had awful backache, pains in my limbs, arms and ankles; some nights I'd have to get up five and six times. I also had a stomach trouble which was very annoying, for gas would swell me up and my food would do me no good. I often had indigestion; my bowels were constipated so that I took medicine for them all the time; I couldn't sleep much; in fact I was pretty well run down in every way.
"As soon as I read about this new medicine Deeco, I got a bottle for it. I always had faith in root and herb medicines. Deeco did not disappoint me either for in a few days I could feel some relief. I am now feeling better than in a long time; don't have to get up at night any more; bowels move regularly; my nerves are quieted so that my sleep is sound and refreshing. My stomach is stronger for I don't have the gas nor indigestion any more. Deeco did so much for me I have already recommended it to several of my friends who say they are going to take it too."
Deeco is composed of the juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and leaves, which act on the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels and purify the blood. It relieves constipation, prevents gas forming in the stomach, increases the appetite, insures sound, refreshing sleep, banishes catarrh of the head and takes the pain out of rheumatic joints.
All good druggists now sell Deeco and it is highly recommended in Lima by Baldwin's Central Drug store on Main and High streets.

Written by STROHEIM
Directed by STROHEIM
Starring in by STROHEIM

HER husband had neglected her — had gone away — she was very lonely and unhappy — outside her door waited one who had sworn to make her the happiest woman on earth — all she had to do was to give him his chance. Do you think you know what was in the letter she gave him? What would you have written in her place?
You'll find the answer in "BLIND HUSBANDS," the most absorbing, gripping, thrilling piece of photo-realism you've ever seen in your life — a story so true and yet so beautiful as to hold you breathless to the very end. If you miss this tremendous drama of human passions you will miss the greatest sensation of the year. Now playing.

Short Shavings

The teacher asked the pupils to write an essay, telling what they would do if they had five million dollars.

Every pupil except little William Powers began writing immediately. William sat idle, twiddling his fingers and watching flies on the ceiling.

Teacher collected the papers and William handed in a blank sheet. "How is this, William?" asked the teacher. "Is this your essay? Every other pupil has written two sheets or more, while you have done nothing."

"Well," replied William, "that's what I'd do if I were a millionaire."

"Attractive visitor you had just now."

"Yes," said the impressionable business man. "She's a book agent and the best looking person who has been about these premises in many a day."

"What's she selling?"

"A life of Cleopatra. I thought I might lead up to suggesting a little dinner for two by saying I like the modern 'vaudeville' much better, but she merely fixed me with a cold stare took my order for a copy of 'Cleopatra' and swept out."

"I suppose Cleopatra Gulch is quieter since the bar closed."

"Not yet," said Cactus Joe. "All you've got to do is say 'prohibition' and everybody begins to argue at the top of his voice."

"Hubby, you can settle a bet between me and Miss Giddy."

"Don't refer your bets to me, my dear. If I decide you've won that will look like favoritism. And if I decide you've lost, I'll have to pay it."

HAIR CLIPPERS CAUSE PANIC AMONG GIRLS IN N. J.

RUTHERFORD, N. J.—Police officials all over Bergen County are making every effort to ascertain the identity of two young men, traveling in an automobile, who have spread a reign of terror among young girls with attractive hair. Recently two girls have been shown of their long tresses, and the victims have furnished good descriptions of the "hair clippers" that their arrest is expected soon.

Elsie Meunichhausen, thirteen, blond, was alone near her home on Second street, Caldwell, when the men leaped from an automobile, grabbed hold of her and cut off the major part of her hair.

Annie Frise, thirteen, brunette, of No. 507 Seventh street, Caldwell, was on Hackensack street, East Rutherford, when two young men accosted her and cut off her tresses.

AIR MAIL ROUTES ARE PLANNED

Burleson Has Scheme to Cut Time Materially

WASHINGTON—Four new airmail routes to link the important cities of the country from coast to coast will be established if Congress grants an appropriation of $1,000,000. Postmaster General Burleson stated today.

A fifth route, under contemplation but has not yet been given the approval of the postoffice department.

The new routes as outlined by Burleson, in a letter to the congressional postoffice committee are:

Chicago to San Francisco, thus giving airmail service from New York to the Pacific coast.

Pittsburgh to Kansas City, via Cincinnati, Indianapolis and St. Louis.

New York to Atlanta, by an extension from Washington.

Minneapolis and St. Paul to St. Louis, via Chicago.

The other route now being investigated is by hydroplane down the Mississippi river from St. Louis to New Orleans with stops at Cairo, Memphis and Vicksburg.

Burleson estimated that the transportation of $2,000,000 in letters would be greatly speeded up by the extensions.

The new routes would reduce nearly one-half the mail time between the cities and in addition to the lines already in operation from Washington to New York, New York to Cleveland, Cleveland to Chicago.

If the route from New York to the Pacific coast is put into operation, the mail time will be reduced from 90 hours and 30 minutes westbound and 102 hours eastbound, Burleson said.

The Pittsburgh-Kansas City route would mean that mail leaving Pennsylvania at 7 a. m., could be delivered in Indianapolis and Cincinnati in the forenoon, St. Louis at noon, and Kansas City in the afternoon. The present railroad time is 24 hours and 50 minutes while the flying time would be 10 hours and 40 minutes. Mail between Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Kansas and southwestern states, would be advanced from 12 to 24 hours.

SNAKE RIVER STEADILY EATING AWAY TOWN

BAGGS, Wyo.—This town of 200 souls is doomed to extinction unless the Snake River ceases its periodic rampages. The river is steadily and rapidly eating its way into the bank on which the town is built, and in its frequent overflows is forming a new bed that leads to the northern part of the village. It is probable if the Snake follows its new course in the Spring floods that the bridge now crossing the river here will be left high and dry and the town itself entirely inundated.

LAKE STEAMER BATTLING WITH ICE TO CLEAR PORT

MUSKEGON, Mich.—Caught in a gigantic ice field six miles off Muskegon the Croby line passenger and freight steamer Petoskey, with a score of passengers and a crew of 42 aboard, was battling the ice Thursday in an attempt to reach open water ten miles from shore.

The vessel neared this port Wednesday from Milwaukee but was caught in the ice.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and after four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

ADVOCATES STUDY OF PALMISTRY IN SCHOOLS

LONDON.—The study of palmistry in the public schools is being advocated by Miss Julie Clifton, who claims to be the leading woman palmist in Great Britain. At an address at Steinway Hall she declared that the palm of every schoolchild should be examined in order to help him or her determine his life work. Miss Clifton says that one of her chief missions is to detach palmistry from the humbug which has been brought down upon it.

CAT'S TAIL CUT OFF TO CURE MANGE; $15 FINE

NEW YORK—Joseph Farrone, a fish dealer, of No. 179 First avenue, was fined $15 in Essex Market Court, cut off a cat's tail to cure it of the mange. He threw the tail into a barrel and a neighbor carried it to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The fish dealer told Magistrate Frothingham it was an Italian custom.

"That's a cruel custom," said the Magistrate. "Why not use mange soap?"

He fined Farrone $15.

McKilver, whose body was found in the woods recently, has finished its work and announced that the boy had come to his death by a gunshot wound at the hand of some person or persons unknown.

Dr. B. M. Disbrow, called as a witness, said he did not believe the boy had been attacked, and in his opinion there has been no foul play.

JAP'S DARING ATTEMPT TO KILL WAR MILLIONAIRES

Smoothly yet positively they produce results that cleanse the system and make the liver and bowels respond to the demands of a strong healthy body. Size 25¢—at all druggists. Try them tonight.

LONDON NEWSBOY EARNS $6,500 PROFIT A YEAR

LONDON.—"Newsboy boys in London can earn more than $5,000 a year," says Mr. Alexander MacLaren, secretary of the retail news agents and booksellers.

"One boy, a real plutocrat of the gutter, with a 'pitch' outside a suburban rail station, is making $6,500 profit a year. I calculate that his wholesale accounts total $500 weekly, or $26,000 a year; at a moderate estimate his profit is 25 per cent, making his yearly income $6,500."

MacLaren protested at the amount of money lost to the community by those street corner salesmen, pointing out that if the trade was carried on in shops there would be rates and taxes to be paid on the whole of it.
